What They Are Saying About JUNE JONES

"June Jones is the right man to make SMU a real football program... Jones' presence has energized SMU."
- Jean-Jacques Taylor, The Dallas Morning News

"Over the course of his 25 seasons coaching pro and college football, Jones has made a habit of creating success where it didn't exist before... The renovations of Mustang football have begun in earnest."
- Ivan Maisel, ESPN.com

"Getting June Jones to SMU is the recruiting job of the century..."
- Chris Fowler, ESPN GameDay

"SMU will play a brand of football that will pack that stadium."
- Norm Hitzges, 1310 AM The Ticket

"To get a guy like June Jones, with the background he has... It's going to translate into winning."
- Craig James

"June will do a great job at SMU."
- Eric Dickerson

"A great hire for the Mustangs... June Jones will make Mustang football relevant again."
- Rivals.com

"That program's going to be a terror a couple of years from now, if not next year."
- Colt Brennan

"Jones will be more than just a tremendous coach in Dallas -- he will be the face of the football team and a breath of fresh air... The SMU program looks to be headed in the right direction, and they've hired the right man for the job."
- Paul Myerberg, The New York Times

"At SMU, Jones will develop the next Colt Brennan (and) get the Ponies to a bowl... Jones will lay the groundwork for SMU to get back on the national scene..."
- CBSSportsline.com

"The Mustangs will be up-tempo and high-scoring."
- Phil Stukenborg, Memphis Commercial-Appeal

SMU ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Southern Methodist University strives for excellence in teaching, research and service. Within this mission, SMU's intercollegiate athletics program is an integral part of the institution and its educational programs. SMU is committed to maintaining an intercollegiate athletics program that reflects the attitudes and values underlying the University's overall mission: integrity, academic excellence, leadership, equity, diversity and success. An intercollegiate athletics program that reflects these values will contribute to the overall quality of the campus experience by fostering a sense of community and promoting institutional commitment on the part of student, faculty, staff and alumni.

SMU is committed to maintaining a successfully competitive intercollegiate athletics program that acts in concert with academic objectives and enriches the life of the institution. Accordingly, the intercollegiate athletics program should be conducted with respect, fairness, civility, honesty and responsibility. The student-athlete's activities are an integral part of the larger educational experience, enhancing his or her holistic development. The University will admit no student-athlete who does not demonstrate a reasonable likelihood of successfully completing a baccalaureate degree at SMU. To ensure that SMU's student-athletes have a reasonable opportunity to complete their baccalaureate degrees, the University will endeavor to provide the necessary and appropriate resources for academic support.

SMU will not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or veteran status. The Director of Affirmative Action has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies and may be contacted at SMU, Dallas TX 75275, 214-768-3601.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

A private university of 11,000 students near the center of Dallas, SMU offers strong undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs through seven schools - in the humanities and sciences; business; the performing, visual, and communication arts; engineering; education and human development; law; and theology.

Students come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and nearly 90 foreign countries, and represent diverse economic, ethnic, and religious backgrounds.

SMU itself is a gateway to the global community, offering more than 20 study-abroad programs as well as a unique campus in northern New Mexico on the site of a historic fort and 13th-century Indian pueblo.

Founded in 1911 by what is now The United Methodist Church, SMU opened in 1915 with support from Dallas leaders. The University is nonsectarian in its teaching and committed to freedom of inquiry.

■ The University's 10 libraries house the largest private collection of research materials in the Southwest.

■ The internationally acclaimed Meadows Museum houses one of the finest collections of Spanish art outside of Spain.

■ As part of SMU's focus on leadership, the Tate Distinguished Lecture Series and Hart Global Leaders Forum bring national and world leaders to campus for lectures and interaction with students.

■ More than 200 campus organizations provide other opportunities for involvement.

■ SMU is ranked 13th in the the nation by the Center for College Affordability & Productivity.

■ SMU consistently ranks in the top one-third of national universities in the guide America's Best Colleges, published by U.S. News & World Report.

■ Cox School of Business is recognized as a leader in business education by such publications as BusinessWeek, Forbes, The Economist, Financial Times, The Wall Street Journal and U.S. News & World Report.

■ The SMU Dedman School of Law is ranked 43rd in the nation by U.S. News & World Report.

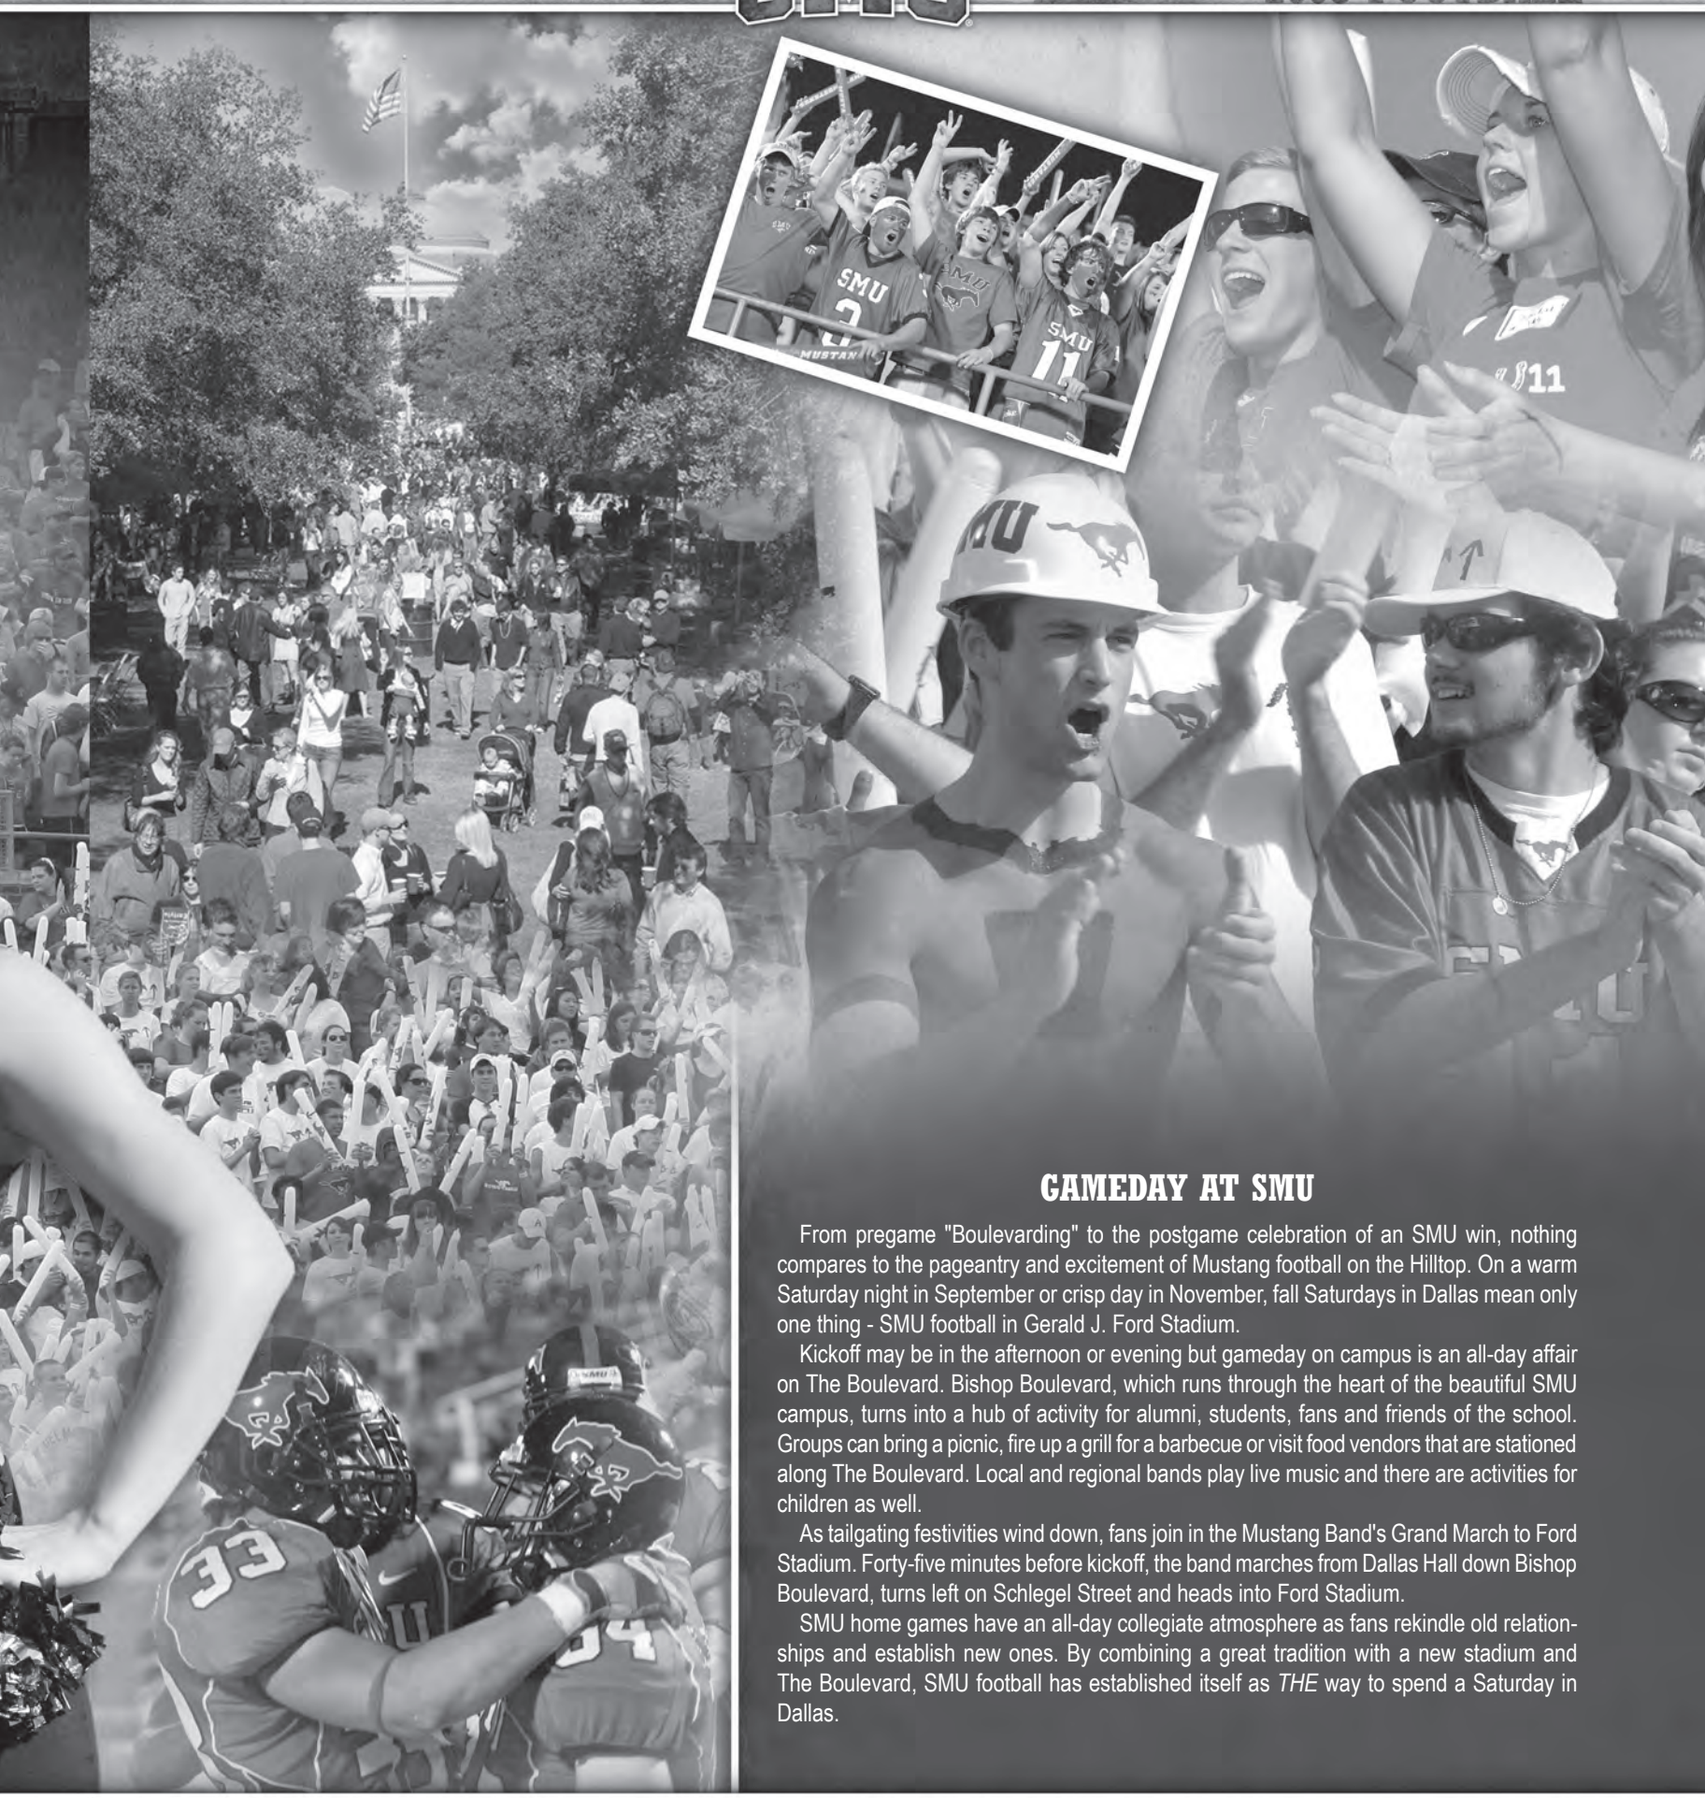
Gameday At SMU

MUSTANG FOOTBALL



GAMEDAY AT SMU

From pregame "Boulevarding" to the postgame celebration of an SMU win, nothing compares to the pageantry and excitement of Mustang football on the Hilltop. On a warm Saturday night in September or crisp day in November, fall Saturdays in Dallas mean only one thing - SMU football in Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

Kickoff may be in the afternoon or evening but gameday on campus is an all-day affair on The Boulevard. Bishop Boulevard, which runs through the heart of the beautiful SMU campus, turns into a hub of activity for alumni, students, fans and friends of the school. Groups can bring a picnic, fire up a grill for a barbecue or visit food vendors that are stationed along The Boulevard. Local and regional bands play live music and there are activities for children as well.

As tailgating festivities wind down, fans join in the Mustang Band's Grand March to Ford Stadium. Forty-five minutes before kickoff, the band marches from Dallas Hall down Bishop Boulevard, turns left on Schlegel Street and heads into Ford Stadium.

SMU home games have an all-day collegiate atmosphere as fans rekindle old relationships and establish new ones. By combining a great tradition with a new stadium and The Boulevard, SMU football has established itself as THE way to spend a Saturday in Dallas.

Gerald J. Ford Stadium

THE HOME OF MUSTANG FOOTBALL

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

In the history of the SMU football program, June 13, 1997, and Sept. 2, 2000, may stand out as the most significant days since the program's inception in 1915.

The first date is when University officials announced that significant funds had been raised to begin construction on the brand new Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

The second is the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in the stadium against Kansas. The state-of-the-art facility would not have been possible without the generous donations of Gerald J. Ford, Lamar and Norma Hunt, Ray L. and Nancy Ann Hunt, and Sherrill and Jo Ann Pettus, all of whom are SMU alumni.

Gerald J. Ford Stadium, finished in August of 2000 on the former Ownby Stadium grounds, has a horseshoe configuration with an open south end zone adjacent to Mockingbird Lane. The architecture is consistent with the Collegiate-Georgian style of the entire SMU campus and features traditional, yet state-of-the-art design concepts.

The stadium has a seating capacity of 32,000 with the possibility for future expansion to 45,000. The 32,000-seat configuration includes nearly 600 preferred club level seats and 240 seats in 24 spacious luxury suites housed in a custom, three-level press box. In addition to housing preferred club and suite seating, the air-conditioned press box provides excellent sightlines and comfortably accommodates more than 125 working print, radio and television media. The playing surface is 25 feet below ground level, with half of the stadium's seats sunk below grade, ensuring a smooth transition into the surrounding neighborhood and the remainder of the SMU campus.

Ford Stadium was designed by the sports and entertainment design division of Ellerbe Becket, Inc., an architectural firm based in Kansas City, Mo.

C-USA TV EXPOSURE

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through its partnerships with ESPN Inc. and CBS College Sports Television Networks (formerly CSTV). The league entered into long-term agreements with both ESPN and CBS College Sports, which, combined, provides C-USA with significant national and regional exposure for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports. Additionally, the CBS College Sports agreement includes video-on-demand, Internet, broadband, national over-the-air and satellite radio, and wireless distribution as well as corporate marketing rights, and website production through CSTV.com, part of CBS College Sports. The agreement with ESPN extends the conference's current regular season football package to include the broadcast of the C-USA Football Championship Game.

C-USA SMU
Proud member of Conference USA

Welcome to Conference USA, home to 12 nationally prominent, tradition-rich members in East Carolina, Houston, Marshall, Memphis, Rice, SMU, Southern Miss, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB, UCF and UTEP. This combination enhances men's and women's programs that are steeped in athletic success and academic prowess. Together, we are committed to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities. Dedication to excellence is a common thread for C-USA and the guiding initiative for the league's promising future.

C-USA sponsors competition in 19 sports with all C-USA institutions sponsoring Bowl Subdivision football and several other men's and women's athletic programs.

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom. C-USA annually awards six postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award.

Since its formation, C-USA has established a strong foundation, an identity and a history that reflects the league's national presence. Twelve years of remarkable history has reinforced the league's position in collegiate athletics, setting the course for the next decade and beyond.

Offensive Greats

MUSTANG FOOTBALL

Eric Dickerson (left), Lance McIlhenny (above) and Craig James (right) formed one of the most lethal backfields in college football history in the early 1980s. Nicknamed "The Pony Express," the trio led SMU to an 11-0-1 record in 1982, a Cotton Bowl victory and a National Championship.

Jonas Rutledge ended his career on the Hilltop in 2003 as SMU's all-time kickoff return yardage leader with 2,154 yards.

Don Meredith was a two-time All-America selection for SMU and went on to enjoy a successful NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, and later as an announcer for ABC-TV's "Monday Night Football"

Keylon Kincade is one of only four SMU running backs in school history to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' all-time career record holder for passing yards, completions and TD passes.

Kyle Rote was an All-America running back for SMU in 1950 and went on to be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1964.

Doak Walker won the 1948 Heisman Trophy in his junior year at SMU. Walker went on to be named to the College Football and NFL Halls of Fame. The nation's top collegiate running back each year is awarded a trophy named after SMU's only Heisman winner.

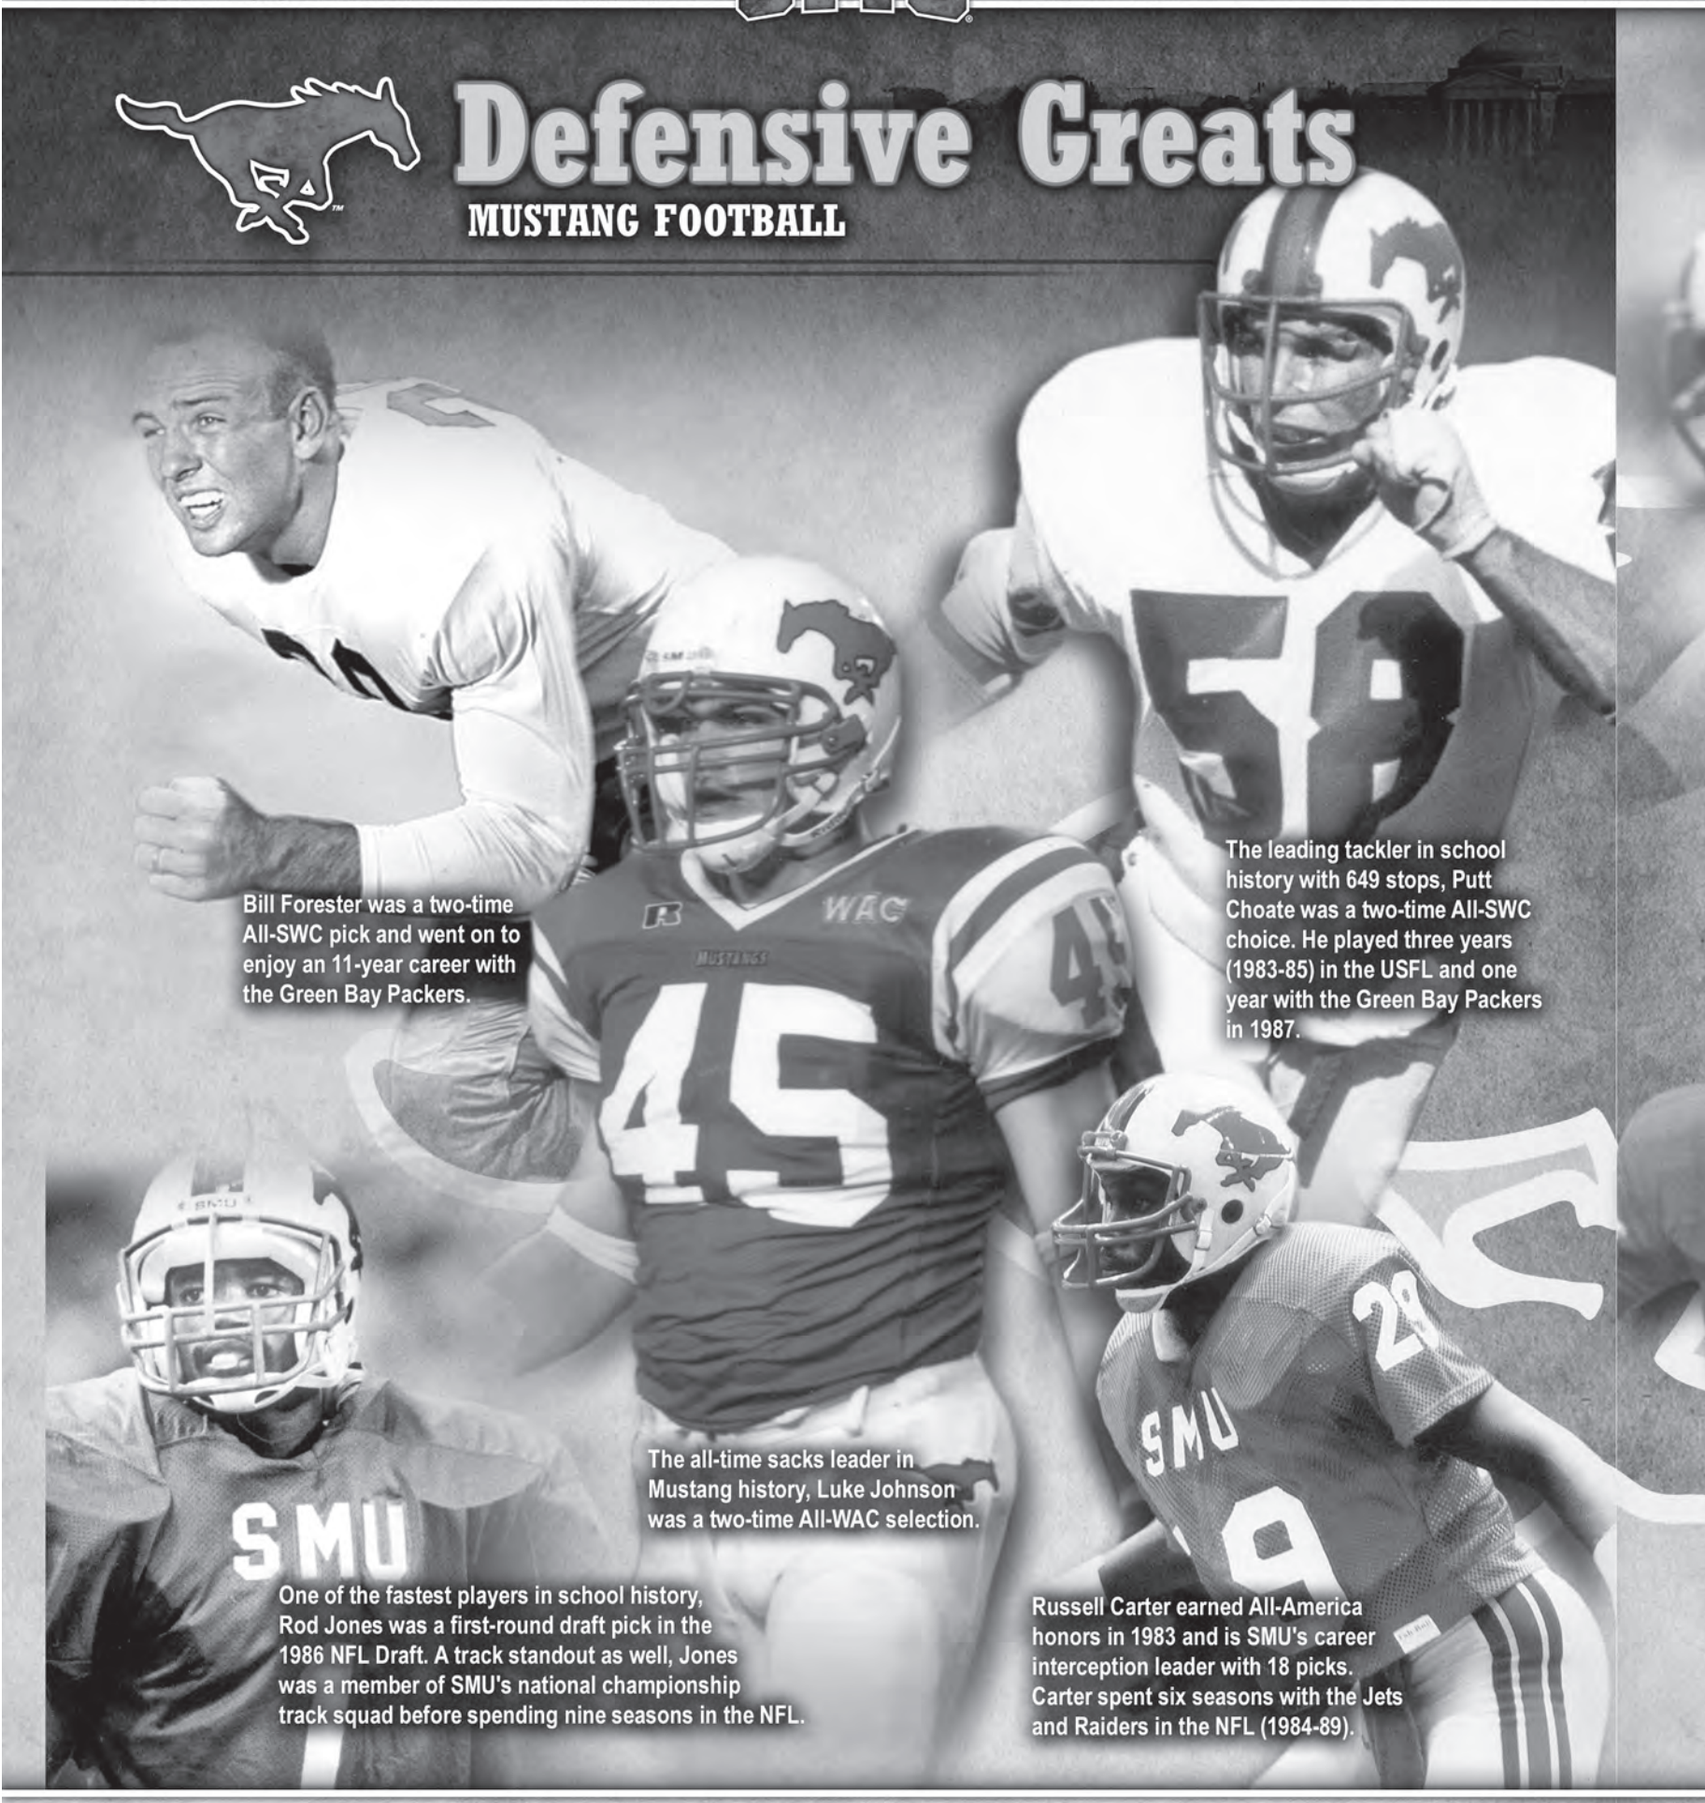
Reggie Dupard was a 1985 All-American for the Ponies and rushed for 1,000 yards three consecutive seasons.

With 235 career catches, Jason Wolf holds both the SMU and Southwest Conference records.

Jerry LeVias accepted SMU's offer to become the first African-American football player to earn a scholarship in the Southwest Conference in the 1960s. LeVias went on to earn All-America honors in 1968 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Defensive Greats

MUSTANG FOOTBALL



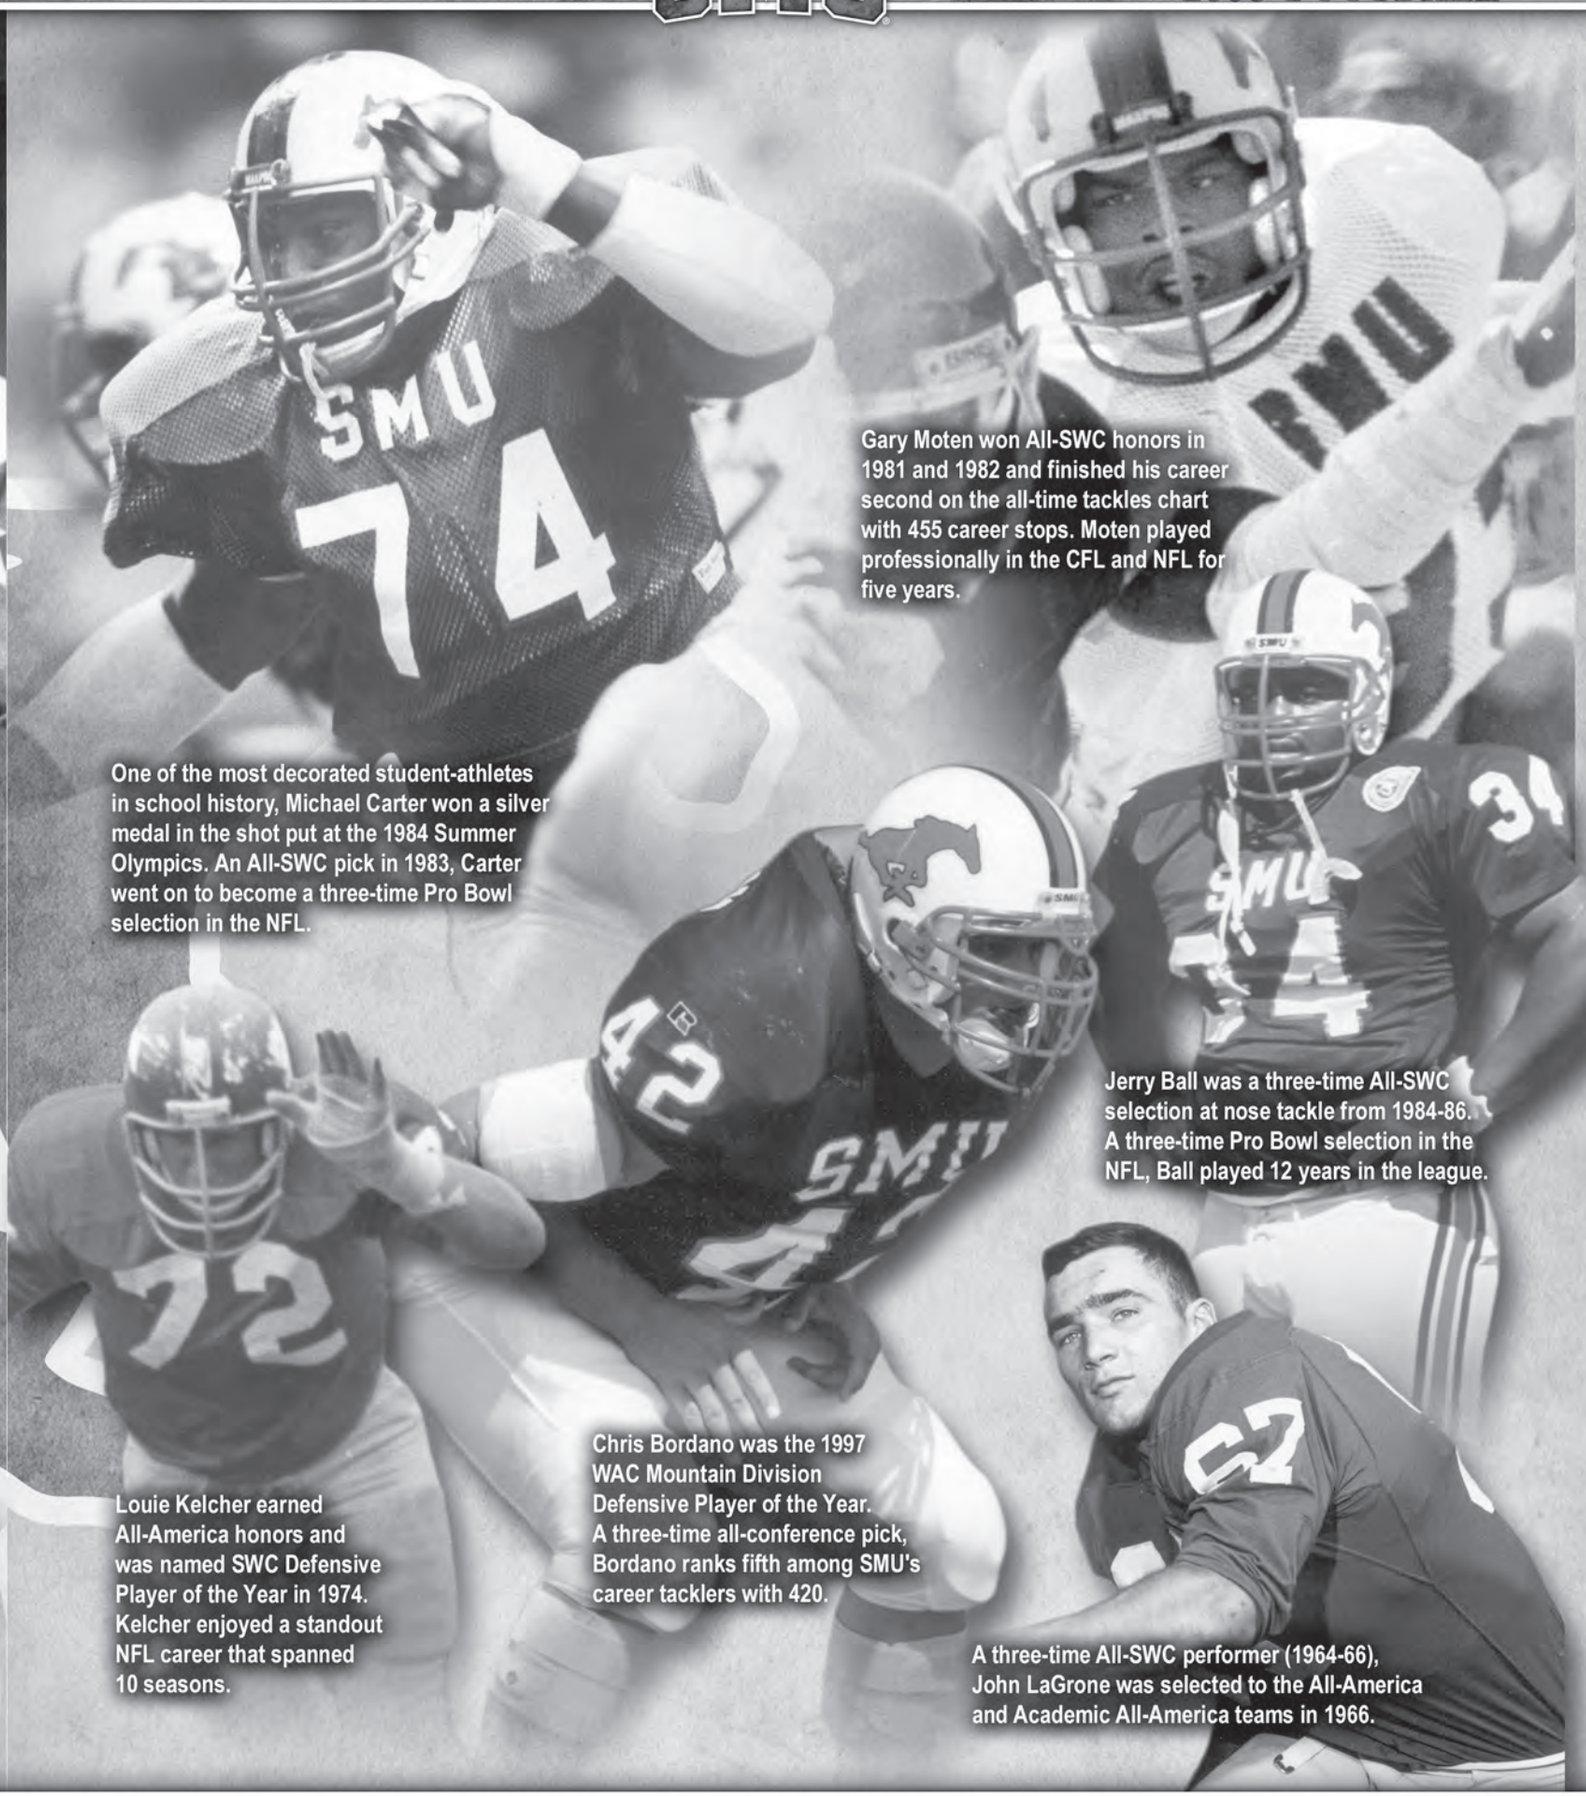
Bill Forester was a two-time All-SWC pick and went on to enjoy an 11-year career with the Green Bay Packers.

The leading tackler in school history with 649 stops, Putt Choate was a two-time All-SWC choice. He played three years (1983-85) in the USFL and one year with the Green Bay Packers in 1987.

The all-time sacks leader in Mustang history, Luke Johnson was a two-time All-WAC selection.

One of the fastest players in school history, Rod Jones was a first-round draft pick in the 1986 NFL Draft. A track standout as well, Jones was a member of SMU's national championship track squad before spending nine seasons in the NFL.

Russell Carter earned All-America honors in 1983 and is SMU's career interception leader with 18 picks. Carter spent six seasons with the Jets and Raiders in the NFL (1984-89).



Gary Moten won All-SWC honors in 1981 and 1982 and finished his career second on the all-time tackles chart with 455 career stops. Moten played professionally in the CFL and NFL for five years.

One of the most decorated student-athletes in school history, Michael Carter won a silver medal in the shot put at the 1984 Summer Olympics. An All-SWC pick in 1983, Carter went on to become a three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL.

Jerry Ball was a three-time All-SWC selection at nose tackle from 1984-86. A three-time Pro Bowl selection in the NFL, Ball played 12 years in the league.

Louie Kelcher earned All-America honors and was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1974. Kelcher enjoyed a standout NFL career that spanned 10 seasons.

Chris Bordano was the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time all-conference pick, Bordano ranks fifth among SMU's career tacklers with 420.

A three-time All-SWC performer (1964-66), John LaGrone was selected to the All-America and Academic All-America teams in 1966.

Mustangs In The Pros

THE NEXT LEVEL

Justin Rogers was selected by the New England Patriots in the sixth-round of the 2007 NFL Draft and now plays for the Dallas Cowboys.

Don Meredith starred as the starting quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys from 1960-68.

Keylon Kincade played with the Dallas Cowboys in 2006.

Michael Carter played eight seasons with the San Francisco 49ers.

Former SMU signal caller Richard Bartel is currently playing for the Dallas Cowboys.

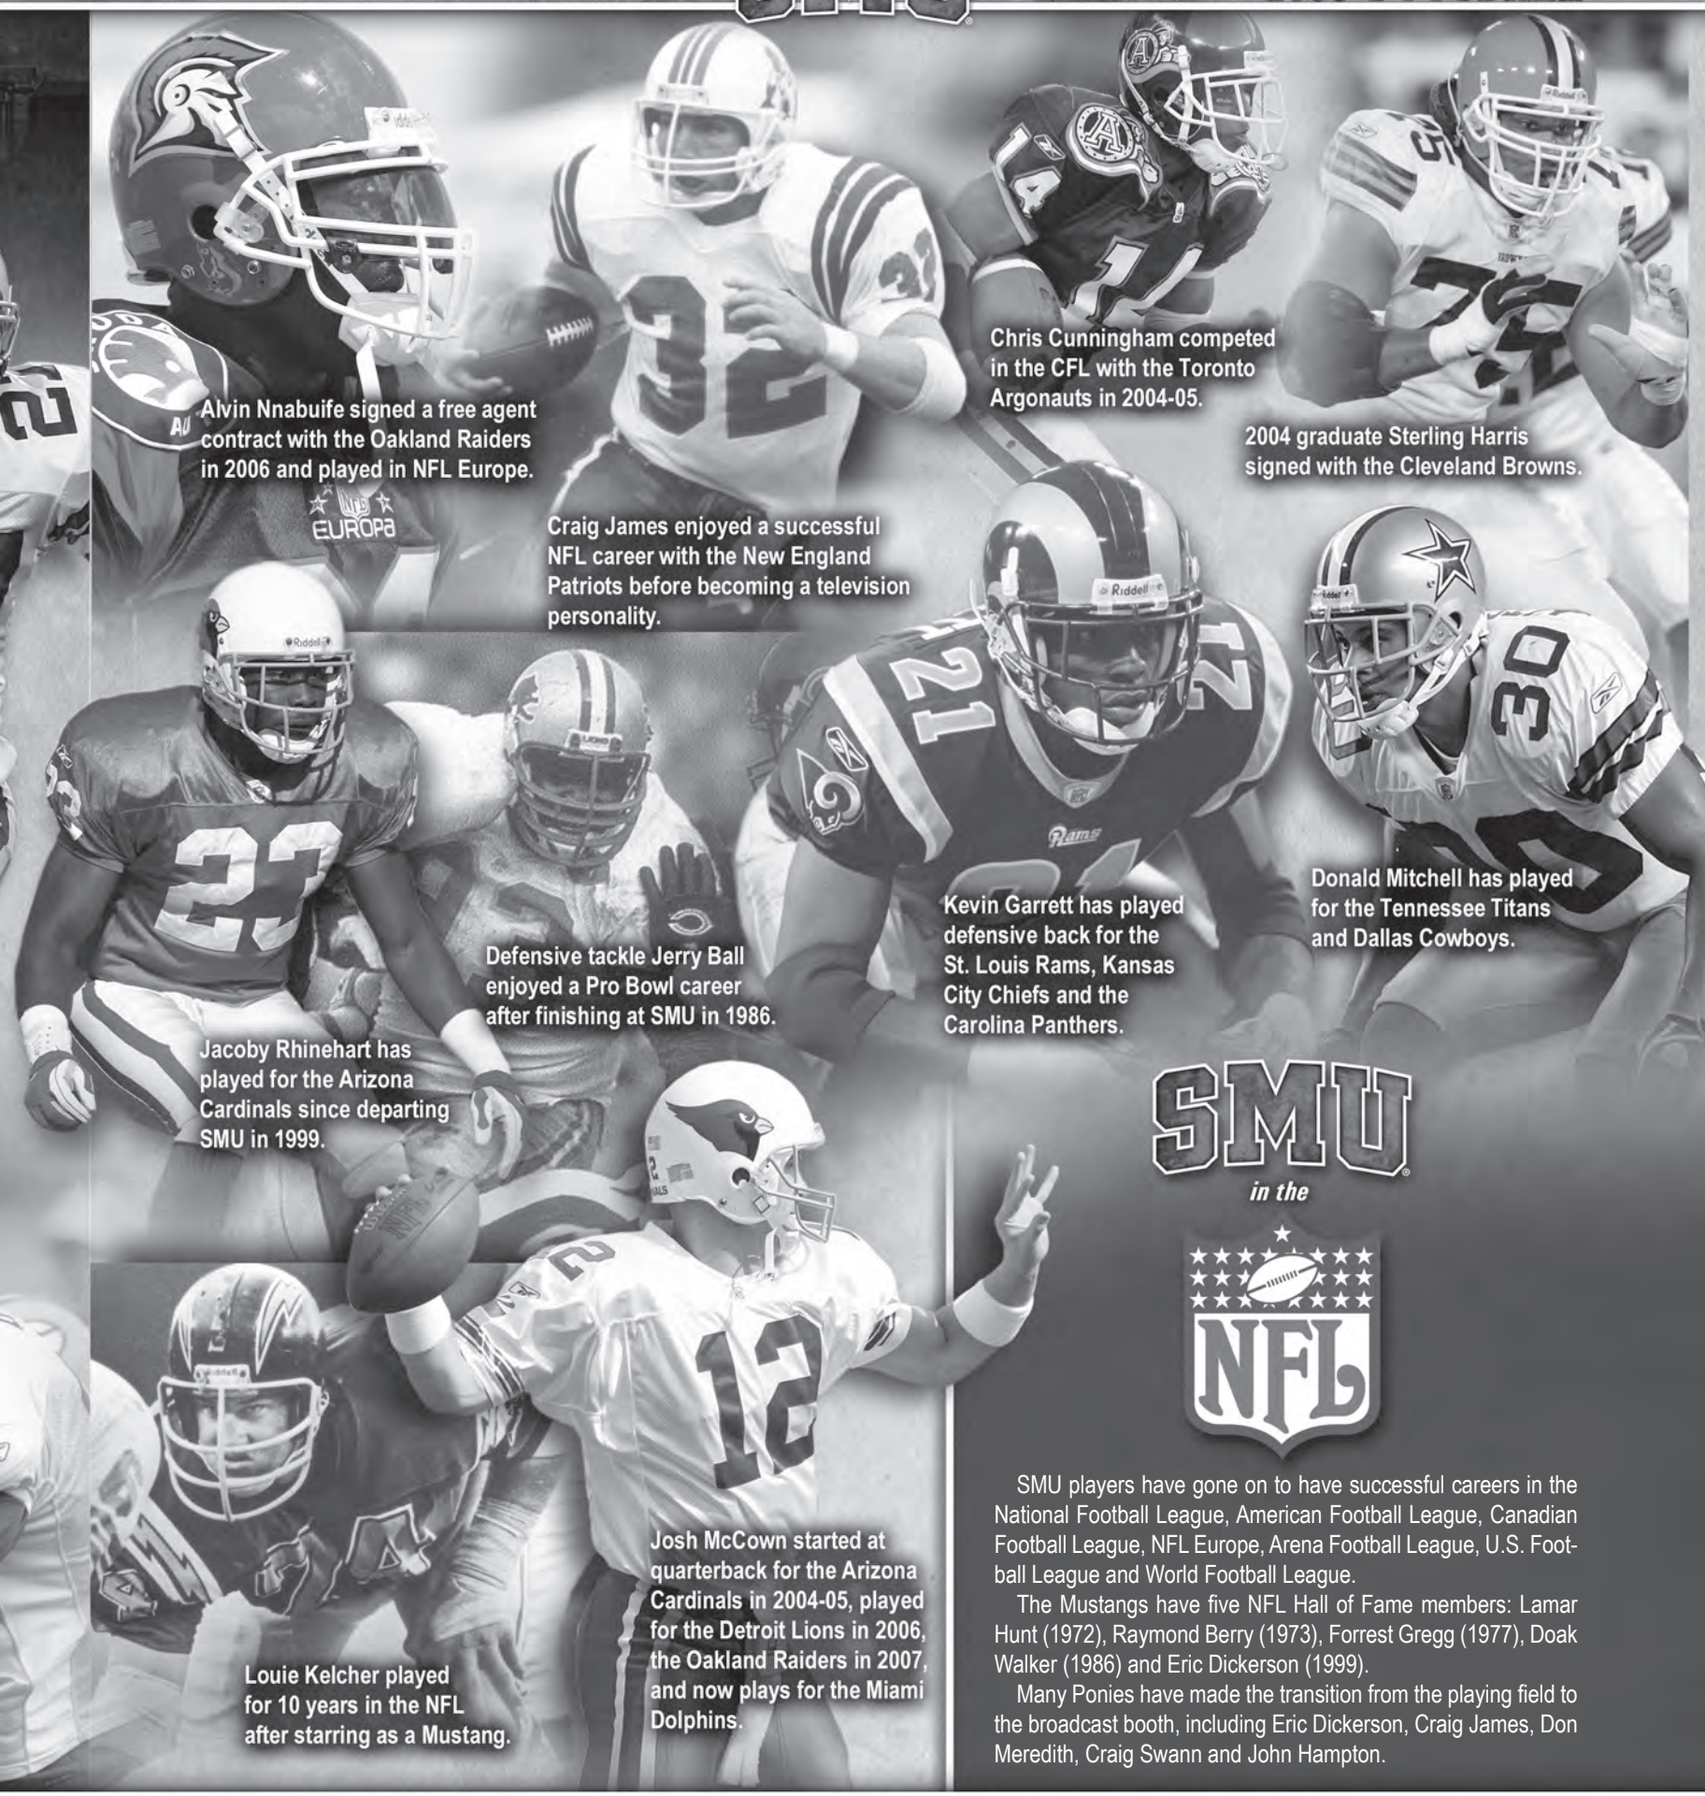
Jonas Rutledge played with the Tennessee Titans in 2004.

Albert Johnson has seen time with the New York Jets and Miami Dolphins since leaving the Hilltop.

Eric Dickerson ranks as one of the all-time best backs in NFL history and rushed for over 2,000 yards in a season as a member of the Los Angeles Rams.

Reggie Dupard enjoyed a five-year career with the New England Patriots and Washington Redskins after leaving SMU.

Kris Briggs has spent time with Green Bay, Cleveland, Atlanta and Denver since graduating from SMU.



Alvin Nnabuife signed a free agent contract with the Oakland Raiders in 2006 and played in NFL Europe.

Craig James enjoyed a successful NFL career with the New England Patriots before becoming a television personality.

Chris Cunningham competed in the CFL with the Toronto Argonauts in 2004-05.

2004 graduate Sterling Harris signed with the Cleveland Browns.

Defensive tackle Jerry Ball enjoyed a Pro Bowl career after finishing at SMU in 1986.

Kevin Garrett has played defensive back for the St. Louis Rams, Kansas City Chiefs and the Carolina Panthers.

Donald Mitchell has played for the Tennessee Titans and Dallas Cowboys.

Jacoby Rhinehart has played for the Arizona Cardinals since departing SMU in 1999.

Louie Kelcher played for 10 years in the NFL after starring as a Mustang.

Josh McCown started at quarterback for the Arizona Cardinals in 2004-05, played for the Detroit Lions in 2006, the Oakland Raiders in 2007, and now plays for the Miami Dolphins.

SMU in the NFL

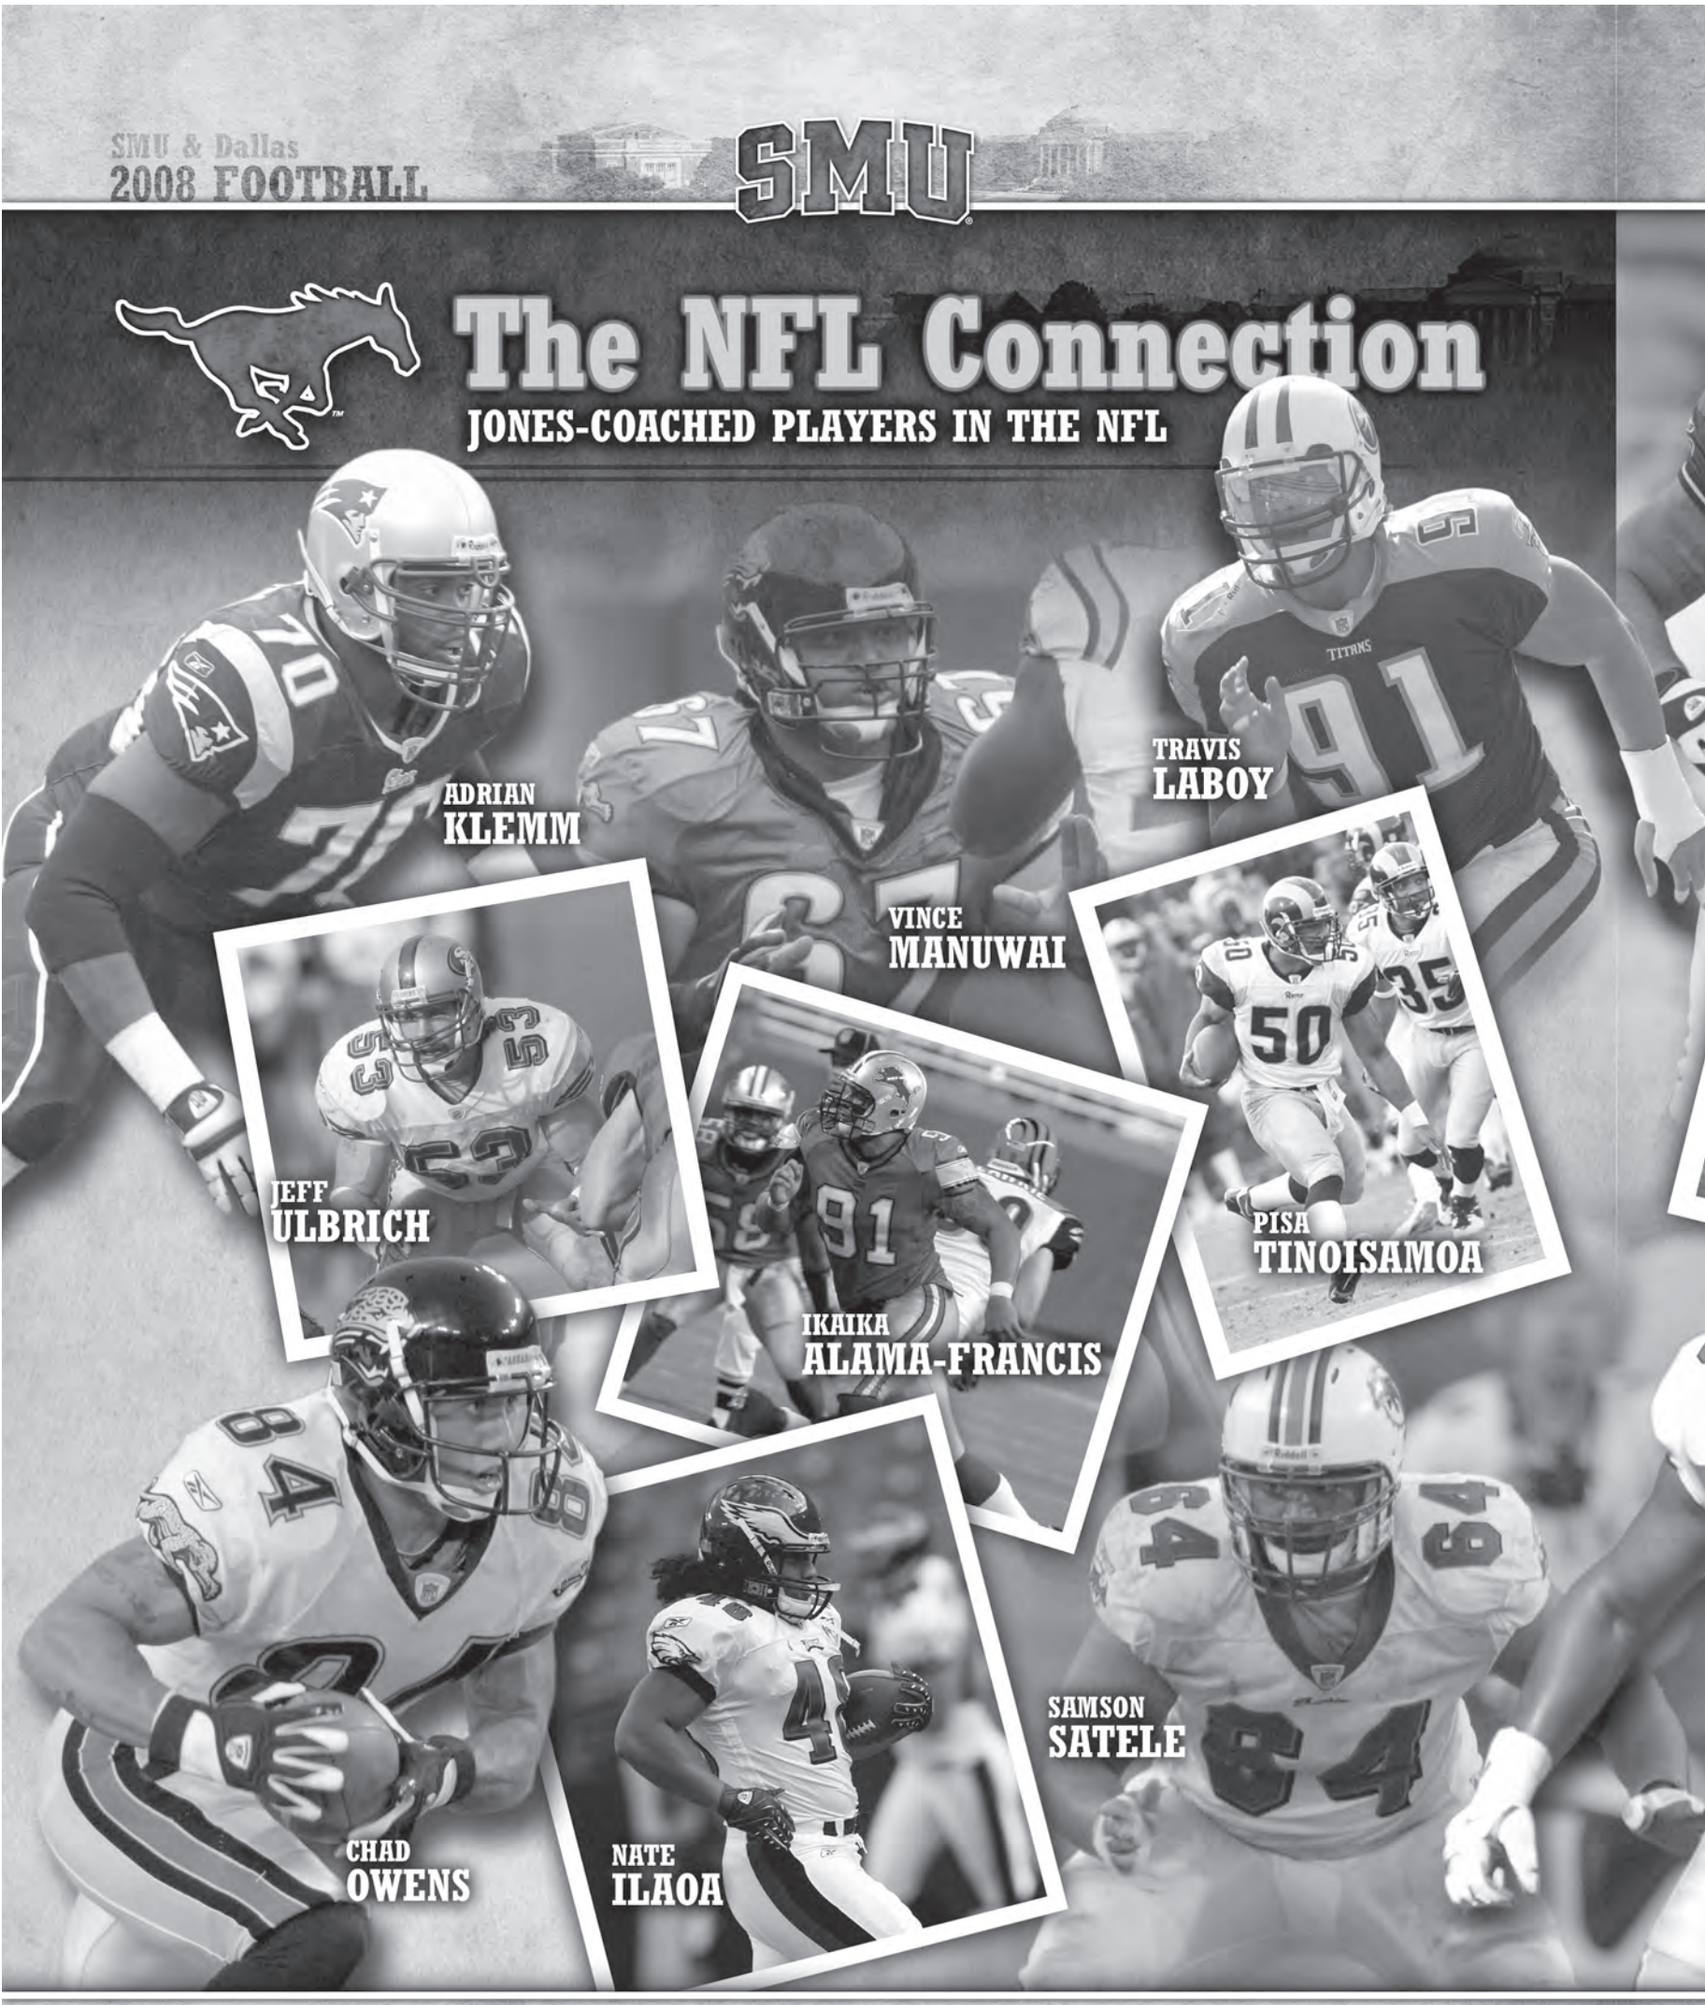
SMU players have gone on to have successful careers in the National Football League, American Football League, Canadian Football League, NFL Europe, Arena Football League, U.S. Football League and World Football League.

The Mustangs have five NFL Hall of Fame members: Lamar Hunt (1972), Raymond Berry (1973), Forrest Gregg (1977), Doak Walker (1986) and Eric Dickerson (1999).

Many Ponies have made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth, including Eric Dickerson, Craig James, Don Meredith, Craig Swann and John Hampton.

The NFL Connection

JONES-COACHED PLAYERS IN THE NFL



In addition to the players SMU has placed in the NFL, coach June Jones has sent more than his fair share of players to the professional ranks. In just nine seasons, Jones has sent 46 players to NFL teams and camps.

SMU Hall of Fame

RECOGNIZING MUSTANG GREATS

The SMU Athletic Department, in conjunction with the SMU Lettermen's Association, honored the inaugural class of its Athletic Hall of Fame at an induction dinner and ceremony on May 2.

The 2008 inductees were Forrest Gregg, Lamar Hunt, Martina Moravcova and Payne Stewart.

The SMU Athletic Hall of Fame is a revitalization and broadening of the SMU/Dr Pepper Hall of Fame, which existed at SMU from 1978 to 1986. The Dr Pepper Hall of Fame honored athletes and administrators who played major roles in establishing the Mustang football program.

A brief listing of the class and their achievements follow:

- Forrest Gregg ('56) - former Mustang football player, coach and athletic director; member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame;
- Lamar Hunt ('56) - former SMU football player and founder of the Kansas City Chiefs; member of the Pro Football, Texas Sports, National Soccer and International Tennis Halls of Fame;
- Martina Moravcova ('98) - 14-time NCAA swimming champion and Olympic medalist;
- Payne Stewart ('79) - 1989 PGA Champion, two-time U.S. Open Champion and member of five U.S. Ryder Cup teams.

PAUL B. LOYD, JR. All-Sports Center

The Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center, which is attached to the northwest corner of Gerald J. Ford Stadium, is a 72,000 square-foot structure providing all Mustang student-athletes with several improvements over old facilities, including:

- Offices and locker facilities for football and several Olympic sports
- A state-of-the-art weight room featuring Olympic free weight machines and cardiovascular equipment
- A sports medicine complex
- Conference rooms, including a modern theater-style meeting room for all SMU sports
- A modern equipment room which provides easy access to the playing field and houses expanded laundry and storage areas in order to serve all sports residing in the facility
- Ticket facilities, including ticket windows and offices, as well as working and waiting areas
- Offices for SMU's athletic administration

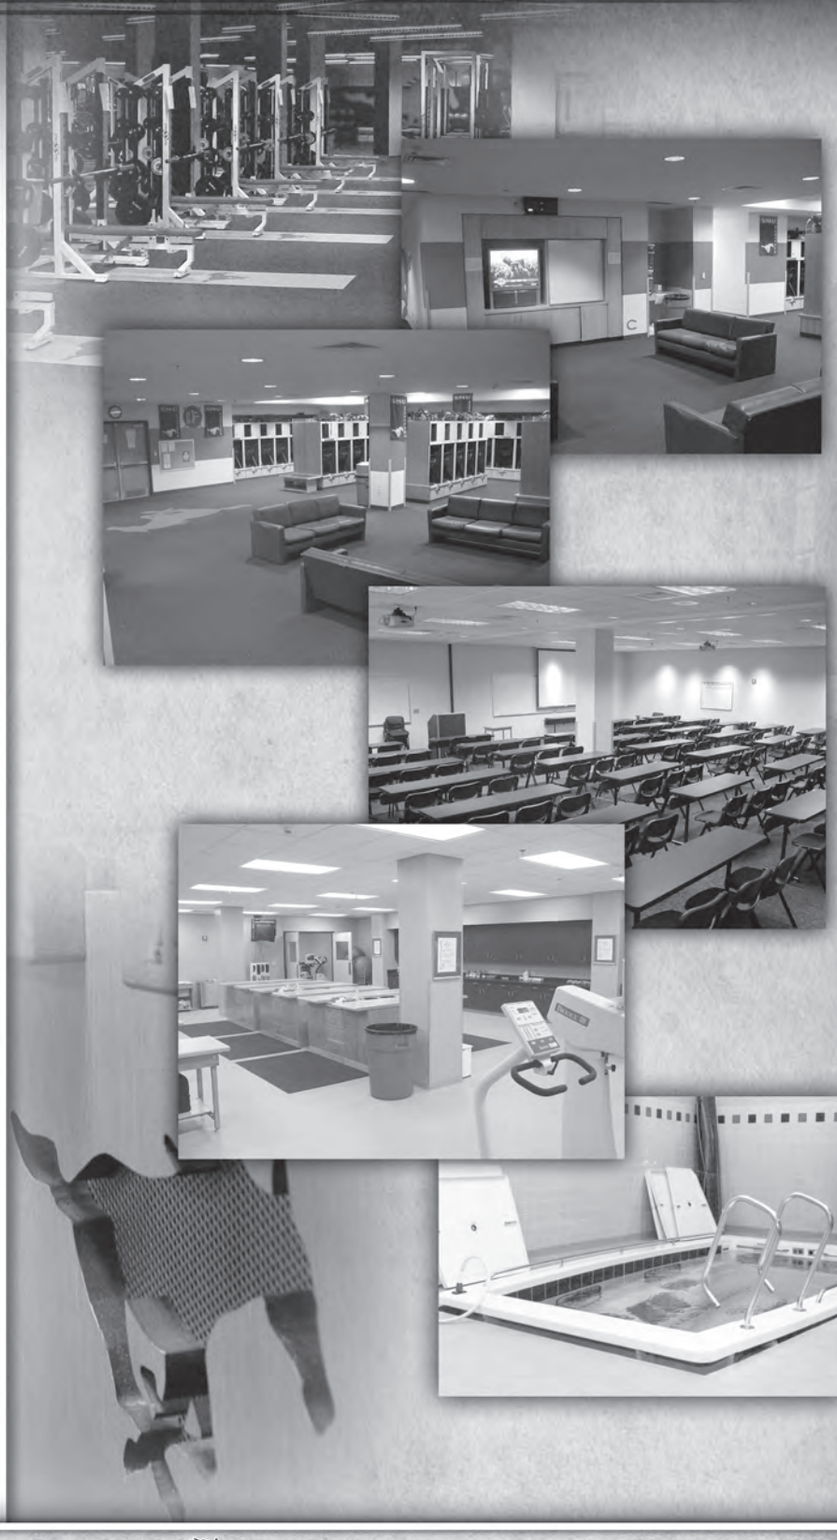
SPORTS MEDICINE

The SMU athletic training program features first-class facilities inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center and the outstanding services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals. SMU Director of Sports Medicine Mike Morton, assistant football trainers Bill Currie and Josh Stevens and the rest of the SMU training staff members work together with physicians to design rehabilitation programs for injured student-athletes to minimize the loss of fitness during recuperation.

Under Morton's direction, SMU student-athletes are treated by full-time, certified trainers Kelli Clay, Jeff Mattis, Zach McLeese, Becky Rolke and Karen Tankersley.

EQUIPMENT ROOM

The SMU equipment staff handles all of the ordering and inventory of athletic gear for the football team and oversees the team's equipment, locker and team meeting rooms. Director John Mendow and assistant Mike Boniol supervises an operation that custom fits all Mustang football players for pads, shoes, uniforms and helmets. The equipment staff's facilities inside of the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center are among the best in the country.



HERITAGE HALL

Along with Gerald J. Ford Stadium and the Paul B. Loyd All-Sports Center, SMU's Heritage Hall opened its doors in September 2000 as a lasting monument to the athletic excellence and tradition at SMU. The 3,000 square foot exhibit highlights the accomplishments and personalities of SMU players and coaches ranging from the Mustangs' first football coach, Ray Morrison, to Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker, to the swimming dynasties of Red Barr and George McMillion.

A 1928 leather football helmet, a football-shaped train menu from the Mustangs' journey to Pasadena for the 1936 Rose Bowl game and one of golfer Payne Stewart's 7-irons are among the artifacts displayed in the museum. Items such as photographs, uniforms, trophies, newspaper and magazine clippings, game programs, and jewelry tell the stories of various eras in SMU sports. In addition, there are six 16-foot banners in the Loyd Center atrium honoring SMU's National Championship teams, while the perimeter displays focus on different sports and historical events, including SMU's 1956 Final Four appearance. These displays capture the spirit of sport and present the vitality of the on-going programs, teams and traditions of Mustang athletics.

SMU

VIC & GLADIE JO SALVINO

Strength & Conditioning Center

"It is the goal of the SMU Strength & Conditioning program to help each student-athlete reach his/her full athletic potential by providing him/her with training programs that are scientifically-based and founded on modern methods of strength & conditioning.

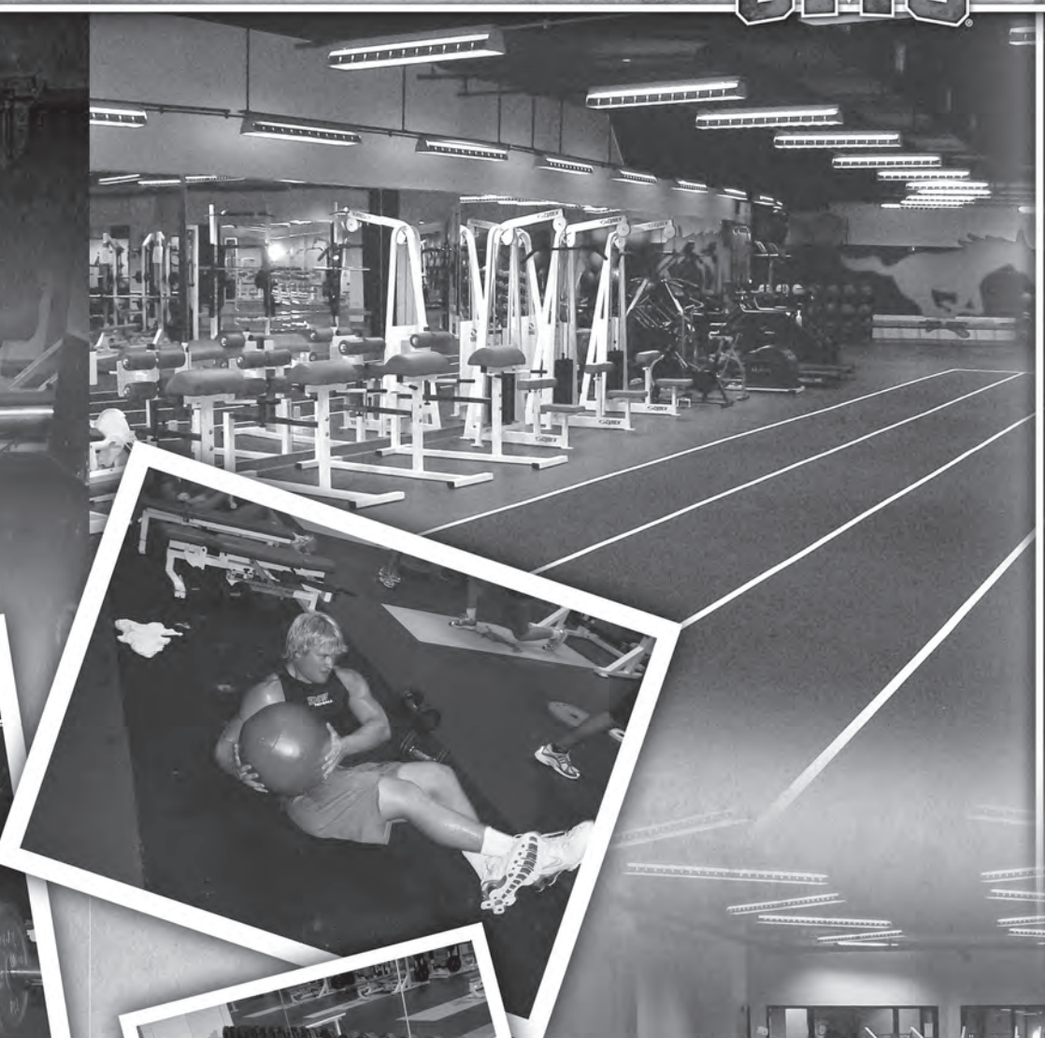
Our motto as a strength & conditioning staff is simple, 'Stay in the Eye of the Storm.'

The most fundamental and important aspect of the SMU strength & conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback and motivate the student-athlete.

The objective of the SMU strength & conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned student-athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each student-athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Student-athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for student-athletes of any sport.

The SMU strength & conditioning staff also plays a major role in the nutritional counseling and the implementation of healthy diets for each of our student-athletes. Our staff is responsible for selecting NCAA-approved supplements that we deem the most beneficial to our student-athletes. On a daily basis, our strength & conditioning coaches weigh-in student-athletes to help monitor changes in bodyweight that may be associated with dehydration, illness, skipping meals, overeating, eating junk foods, etc. This is all done in an effort to help our student-athletes reach his or her ideal playing weight and to keep energy levels high and hydration levels sufficient."

VIC VILORIA,
Head Strength & Conditioning Coach



SALVINO STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

The SMU strength and conditioning staff, led by head strength & conditioning coach Vic Viloria, train Mustang student-athletes in the Vic and Gladie Jo Salvino Strength & Conditioning Center inside the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center.

The Salvino Strength and Conditioning Center opened in August of 2000 and is considered one of the finest of its kind in the nation. Twenty-one self-contained free weight stations are complemented by over 13,000 total pounds of equipment available to SMU student-athletes.

With attention to detail including customized iron grip weights emblazoned with the Mustang logo, the Salvino Strength and Conditioning Center services over 500 athletes and 17 sports.

Much of SMU's program is based on the Hatch Training System, which was developed by Olympic coach and USA Strength & Conditioning Hall of Famer Gayle Hatch. The system focuses on explosive strength training and factors in explosive power, absolute strength, muscular endurance, speed, quickness, flexibility, agility and cardiovascular fitness.

ALTSHULER LEC

Academic Success

SMU student-athletes excel in the classroom, as a remarkable 97 percent of the 386 SMU scholarship student-athletes who entered SMU between 1991 and 2001 and exhausted their eligibility at SMU earned degrees.

Football student-athletes play a big part of SMU's academic success, as 25 players made the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll and three won Commissioner's Academic Medals in 2007-08. In addition, SMU's Thomas Morstead and Zack Sledge were selected to the 13-man C-USA All-Academic Team, Ben Poynter was a semifinalist for the 2007 Draddy Trophy and Morstead, Sledge and Mitch Enright made the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Football Team.

As a team, SMU won the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award (right) after recording a 100 percent graduation rate. Although it was the Mustangs' first win, SMU has been named to the honorable mention category 11 times.

School-wide, seven of SMU's athletic programs scored a perfect 100 percent in the NCAA Graduation Success Rates (GSR), and all 15 of SMU's programs rated by the NCAA were equal to or better than the national average.

ALEC MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the A-LEC's academic counseling staff is to create a supportive educational environment that assists student-athletes with their transition to the university culture, to guide student-athletes in becoming responsible for their learning by teaching skills that help them identify and pursue their educational goals, and to encourage student-athletes to develop and apply the skills and abilities that will expand their range of personal and professional choices and reinforce the commitment to life-long learning.

Academic support for SMU's varsity athletes is coordinated through the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center, which opened its doors to the student population in 1989 and has become one of the University's most widely-used student services.

The A-LEC contains the Blanton Academic Development Complex, including three state-of-the-art, fully-networked computer labs; six private rooms for both individual and small group study; an extensive library of audio, video and digital resources; and a large lounge area.

The A-LEC's content-specific services include tutoring, study groups, review sessions and the Writing Center. At the Writing Center, students receive help with the process of drafting and revising a specific project, as well as assistance with grammar, organization and style.

Understanding the distinctive challenges and unique experiences facing student-athletes, the A-LEC's Academic Counselors are responsible for tracking and responding to student-athlete needs at each stage of the academic calendar. The Academic Counselors' work includes pre-advising student-athletes during summer orientation and registration sessions, meeting with all student-athletes to discuss each semester's academic support needs, and conferring with coaches to determine which student-athletes should be recommended for more closely monitored academic assistance.

NATIONAL ATTENTION AT SMU

Media Exposure

Being a Mustang ensures plenty of media exposure. SMU and Conference USA have television contracts with ESPN and CBS College Sports to broadcast Mustang football nationwide. Media interest in SMU football has soared since the hiring of June Jones and TV and radio stations, newspapers and websites alike have taken notice of the Ponies. SMU already has five games slated for national TV in 2008 and is fast becoming a major television player.

SAAC

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The mission of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare, and fostering a positive student-athlete image.

The SAAC provides insight on the student-athlete experience and offers input on the rules, regulations, and policies that affect student-athletes' lives.

The Committee is an invaluable resource for:

- Promoting communication between athletics administration and student-athletes
- Promoting communication between athletics and campus-wide administration
- Providing feedback and insight, as well as soliciting responses to department issues and proposed NCAA legislation
- Building a sense of community within the athletics program involving all athletics teams
- Organizing community service projects and efforts
- Creating a vehicle for student-athlete representation on campus-wide committees such as student-government
- Operating as a collective voice of campus student-athletes
- Disseminating information to individual student-athletes

The SMU SAAC is comprised of two members of each sponsored team (one upperclassman and one underclassman), along with representatives from supporting organizations (band, cheer, dance, training). During the monthly meetings, SMU SAAC works from a formal agenda and focuses on discussions involving NCAA legislation. There are also question-and-answer sessions with university and athletic department administrators. SMU SAAC is positioned to increase opportunity for service to the community and to help enhance the image of Mustang student-athletes in the community.

SMU wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders (left above) joined NFL legend Jerry Rice at Children's Medical Center as the pair signed autographs, played games and participated in arts and crafts with patients.

SMU's popular Milk & Cookies program (above) takes place at the University Park City Public Library throughout the year. A Mustang student-athlete reads to young kids short stories while they enjoy milk and cookies.

SMU football player Mario Walker (above) was selected to participate in the NCAA Leadership Conference in May of 2007. Walker was one of 356 student-athletes selected from a pool of over 1,300 applicants from 330 institutions.

COACHES

JUNE JONES

Head Coach
First Season
New York State Regents College

June Jones is in his first season on the Hilltop after nine years at Hawaii, where he resurrected a downtrodden Warrior football program to make it one of the most exciting and competitive squads in the country.

A former National Coach of the Year, Jones led his Hawaii teams to 76 wins -- the most by any Hawaii coach -- two Western Athletic Conference championships and six bowl-game appearances. In 1998, Hawaii suffered its first winless season. The following year, the first under Jones, the Warriors went 9-4, marking the biggest turnaround in NCAA history. He developed six All-Americans and produced 17 NFL draft picks, with a school-record five in 2007. In the five years before Jones' arrival, Hawaii combined for 12 wins and not a single draft pick or bowl game berth.

Jones catapulted the Warrior program into the national rankings in his nine seasons, with Hawaii ranking in the top 40 in seven of his nine years, including a top-10 ranking in 2007. For his efforts, Jones was ranked as the top non-BCS coach in the nation by The Sporting News in the spring of 2008.

The 2007 season proved to be the pinnacle of success for Jones at Hawaii, as he led his team to the national spotlight with a top-10 national ranking, a BCS Bowl berth and the school's first Heisman Trophy finalist. Hawaii finished the 2007 regular-season undefeated at 12-0 and was the only team in the Football Bowl Subdivision to earn that distinction. Along the way, the team shattered dozens of NCAA, conference and school records as Jones became just the third coach to lead a team to a BCS Bowl from a conference without an automatic BCS berth. For his efforts, Jones was named the 2007 WAC Coach of the Year and was one of seven finalists for the 2007 Paul "Bear" Bryant College Coach of the Year Award.

SMU Director of Athletics Steve Orsini, who led the search for the Mustangs' coach, said Jones has the mix of experience, expertise and credibility SMU needs.

"As a head coach, June Jones excels at building football programs and SMU is committed to rebuilding its football program" Orsini said. "I truly believe that we will be successful in reaching our goals with Coach Jones as our leader."

Jones is the mastermind of one of the nation's most prolific offenses and was one of just 14 head coaches in the nation to also serve as offensive coordinator in 2007. Jones' Run-and-Shoot attack led the Western Athletic Conference and ranked in the top five nationally in each of his nine seasons at Hawaii. In 2006, the Warriors averaged 46.9 points and 559.2 yards of total offense per game, with 441.29 yards generated through the air, leading the nation in all three categories. Hawaii was potent in 2007 as well, leading the nation in scoring at 46.2 points per game. Under Jones, the Warriors broke more than 400 school records and 50 NCAA records.

Jones-tutored quarterbacks have secured their place among the all-time greats in collegiate football, with Timmy Chang and Colt Brennan each holding several NCAA records. In 2004, Chang made NCAA history by becoming the all-time passing leader with 17,072 yards, and in 2007, Brennan, who finished third in the Heisman Trophy race, broke 29 NCAA records, including passing touchdowns in a season (58) and career (131).

Jones was named the 1999 National Coach of the Year (CNN/Sports Illustrated, American Football Coach/Schutt Sports and The Sporting News) after leading the Warriors to a share of the WAC Championship and a 23-17 win over Oregon State in the Jeep O'ahu Bowl. It was the program's first bowl game since 1992. The 1999 season also marked the first of three Conference Coach of the Year awards for Jones (1999, 2006, 2007).

On the heels of an injury-plagued 3-9 season in 2000, Jones was involved in a Feb. 22, 2001 car accident that nearly claimed his life. The accident kept Jones out of the entire spring session, but his tireless effort to recover allowed him to return to the field in time for fall camp.

In 2001, receiver Chad Owens led the nation in kickoff return average (33.6 yards) and Chang led the nation in total offense (349.7 yards) before bowing out to a wrist injury as Hawaii went 9-3.

The 2002 campaign saw Hawaii post a 10-win season and claim a victory in the ConAgra Foods Hawaii Bowl.

The 2003 season marked the first with a roster comprised entirely of Jones' recruits, and Jones led the team to a successful 9-5 campaign as the Warriors won the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl with a 54-48 triple-overtime victory over Houston. That gave Jones his second bowl win and third bowl appearance at Hawaii, each the most of any coach in the 96 years of the program.

The 2004 season marked one of the best finishes in Hawaii football history. The Warriors won their last three games to earn an invitation to a bowl game and Jones and his squad capped the comeback season with a convincing 59-40 win over UAB in the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl.

While the 5-7 2005 season was plagued with injuries, the 2006 campaign brought about renewed enthusiasm.

In 2006, the Warriors posted an 11-3 mark and finished second in the WAC with a 7-1 league record. The only blemish in conference was a loss to eventual WAC Champion and BCS bowl team Boise State. During the season, Brennan caught the nation's attention as the junior tossed an NCAA-record 58 touchdowns while the squad went on to win the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl for a fourth time.

Jones' players also enjoyed success in the classroom, as his Hawaii teams produced 41 Academic All-WAC honorees during his time at the Hawaii helm.

Before joining the Warriors in 1999, Jones enjoyed a 12-year coaching career in the NFL, including head coaching stops at Atlanta (1994-96) and San Diego (1998). With the Falcons, Jones guided the team that he once played for to a playoff wild-card berth in 1995.

Originally from Portland, Ore., Jones graduated from New York State Regents College after playing quarterback at Oregon (1971-72), Hawaii (1973-74) and Portland State (1975-76), and went on to play professionally for the Atlanta Falcons (1977-81) of the NFL and the Toronto Argonauts (1982) of the Canadian Football League.

TOM MASON

Defensive Coordinator
First Season
Eastern Washington, '82

Tom Mason joins the SMU coaching staff after spending the last seven seasons at Fresno State, where he coached linebackers.

While at Fresno, Mason developed numerous standout linebackers including 2007 Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year Marcus Riley, 2006 first-team All-WAC honoree Dwayne Andrews and 2003 first-teamer Bryce McGill.

Mason joined the Bulldog coaching staff in 2001 after spending one season as linebackers coach with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL. He also spent time in the pro ranks as receivers coach for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League and as defensive backs coach for the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

Mason also boasts an extensive collegiate resume, having served as defensive coordinator (1999) and secondary coach (1998-99) at Nevada and defensive coordinator at both Northern Iowa (1997-98) and Boise State (1993-96). At Boise, Mason helped coordinate a Bronco defense that reached the 1994 NCAA Division I-AA national championship game and then served as Boise's interim head coach from August through November 1996. Prior to his time in Boise, he was defensive coordinator at Portland State (1982-86), helping lead the Vikings to four playoff appearances and two national championship games. He also served as the linebackers coach at Eastern Washington (1981-85) and was the defensive line coach at Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College (1978-80).

As a player, Mason began his career as a linebacker at Idaho before transferring to Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College. He finished out his playing career at Nevada from 1976-77.

Mason received his bachelor's degree in physical education and a master of science degree in physical education and post-secondary education from Eastern Washington.

Mason and his wife, Jami, have a daughter, Brenna.

DAN MORRISON

Assistant Head Coach/Offense
First Season
UCLA, '71

Dan Morrison enters his first season at SMU after spending nine seasons as quarterbacks coach for Hawaii.

Morrison produced All-Conference performers in five of his nine seasons, mentoring all-time NCAA passing leader Timmy Chang and all-time NCAA touchdown pass leader Colt Brennan. In 2004, Chang made NCAA history by becoming the all-time passing leader with 17,072 yards, and in 2007, Brennan, who finished third in the Heisman Trophy race, broke 29 NCAA records, including passing touchdowns in a season (58) and career (131).

In 1999, Morrison developed a talented but unproven quarterback in Dan Robinson. Robinson never was allowed to settle in one system, as he played for three different offensive coordinators in as many years. He found a home in the Run-and-Shoot offense, however, and Morrison coached him to success, as he passed for 3,853 yards and 28 touchdowns. Robinson eventually earned second-team all-conference honors.

In 2000, Morrison guided Chang, a true freshman, through a rebuilding season that earned him Western Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year honors after passing for 3,041 yards and 19 touchdowns.

When Chang was granted a medical hardship in 2001, senior Nick Rolovich finally got his chance and, under Morrison's tutelage, became one of the top passers in the country. Rolovich threw for 1,548 yards and 20 touchdowns in his last three games, including an eight-touchdown performance against then-undefeated BYU in the final game of the season. The experienced reserve finished second in the WAC and fourth in the nation in total offense (336.5) and third in the WAC and 10th in the nation in pass efficiency (150.5).

In 2002, Chang returned and led the Warriors to a 10-4 record, as he passed for 4,474 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Morrison has a strong background as an educator and utilizes those skills to teach the intricacies of the Run-and-Shoot to his quarterbacks.

In nine seasons, Warrior quarterbacks passed more than 40,000 yards and 350 touchdowns under Morrison's guidance. During Morrison's tenure at Hawaii, the Warrior offense ranked in the top five nationally in passing each year.

He and his wife, Karen, are the parents of Nikki, an SMU graduate. Nikki is married to former SMU standout Donald Mitchell, and the two have a daughter, Malia.

FRANK GANSZ

Special Teams
First Season
Naval Academy, '60

Considered perhaps the top special teams coach in the history of the NFL, Frank Gansz enters his first season on the Hilltop. Gansz is a veteran of 37 seasons of coaching - 24 in the NFL and 13 in the collegiate ranks.

Gansz was most recently with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he was special teams coordinator in 2000 and 2001. Prior to his time with the Jags, he served as the special teams coach of the St. Louis Rams for three seasons, helping the team to its victory in Super Bowl XXXIV.

In 1999, the Rams' special teams scored three touchdowns and led the NFL in kickoff returns, averaging 25.1 yards per return. Tony Horne led the league with a 29.7 average and two TDs, and Az-Zahir Hakim also returned a punt for a score and averaged 10.5 yards per return, ranking sixth in the NFC. The Rams were fifth in the NFL in punt coverage (6.7), and kicker Jeff Wilkins set an NFL record for most extra points in a season without a miss (64).

In 1986, Gansz's first year as the assistant head coach/special teams for Kansas City, the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks and scored five touchdowns. The special teams helped Kansas City claim its first playoff berth in 15 years by scoring all 24 points in a 24-19 victory over Pittsburgh in the regular-season finale.

Gansz was then promoted to head coach of the Chiefs, a role he served from 1987 to 1988. He left the Chiefs to become the special teams coach of the Detroit Lions from 1989 to 1993, a period during which Mel Gray developed into the NFL's all-time leader in combined kick return yardage. In 1989, Gansz was named NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. Gansz then spent three years as the assistant head coach/special teams for the Atlanta Falcons from 1994 to 1996.

Gansz's NFL career began in 1978 as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers. He coached special teams and tight ends for Cincinnati (1979-80), Kansas City (1981-82) and Philadelphia (1983-85).

After serving as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force for nearly seven years, Gansz began his coaching career at the Air Force Academy (1964-66). He also had coaching stints at Colgate (1968), Navy (1969-72), Oklahoma State (1973, 1975), Army (1974) and UCLA (1976-77).

Born in Altoona, Pa., Gansz attended Taylor-Allerdice High in Pittsburgh, and was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He played center and linebacker for the Naval Academy from 1957 to 1959 and graduated in 1960. Gansz and his wife, Barbara, have two children, Frank Jr., a nine-year NFL assistant coach, and Jennifer.

BERT HILL

Defensive Line
First Season
Auburn-Montgomery, '80

Bert Hill enters his first season on the Hilltop as SMU's defensive line coach. Hill comes to SMU after spending two seasons as a strength and conditioning coach with the Miami Dolphins.

From 2001 until 2005, Hill worked in private business in Dallas and co-authored several books on the discipline of strength and conditioning.

Hill was on the staff of the Detroit Lions from 1990 to 2000. During his first eight years with the club, he served as strength and conditioning/assistant defensive line coach. From 1998-2000, he was strength and conditioning/assistant offensive line coach. Hill joined the Lions following a one-year stop (1989) as strength and conditioning coach at Texas A&M, his second tour of duty in College Station, having served in the same capacity there from 1983-87. While Hill was on the staff, the Aggies won three straight Southwest Conference titles (1985-87). His two Aggie stints were split by a one-year stop at Ohio State (1988) as strength and conditioning coach.

Hill got his start in the coaching profession as assistant defensive line/assistant strength coach at Nicholls State in 1981. That preceded a one-year stint as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Auburn in 1982.

Hill played linebacker at Marion (Ala.) Military Institute Junior College from 1976-77 and at Wichita State in 1978. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Auburn-Montgomery in 1980 and master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in strength physiology from Auburn in 1982.

TIM HUNDLEY

Assistant Head Coach/Defense
First Season
Western Oregon State, '74

Tim Hundley is in his first season as the Assistant Head Coach/Defense on the Hilltop after spending the last four seasons as UTEP's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

In 2007, UTEP ranked 17th in the nation in turnover ratio at plus-nine and placed two players on the All-C-USA squad. During his four-year stint, he led Miner players to a total of 10 all-conference honors and one Defensive Player of the Year award.

Hundley's players earned national attention as well. Thomas Howard was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft, the earliest a Miner player had been chosen in 37 years. In 2006, defensive end Alex Obomese and defensive tackle Zach West signed NFL free agent contracts with Dallas and New England, respectively, and in 2007, safety Quinten Demps was a fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Hundley served as the defensive coordinator at Washington from 1999-2002, and as co-defensive coordinator for the Huskies in 2003. He tutored the outside linebackers from 1999-2002 before overseeing the entire linebacking corps in 2003. He also supervised the punt coverage unit during his final season with the Huskies.

He has coached in 11 bowl games, including two Rose Bowls, and groomed 14 players who moved on to the National Football League, including pros Marquis Cooper (Seattle), Howard, Michael Lewis (49ers), Ryan Neufeld (Buffalo Bills), Obomese and West. In addition, Hundley recruited six players who garnered All-America honors at the collegiate level: David Kilson (Nevada), Andre Gurode (Colorado), Micheal Lewis (Colorado), Cade McNown (UCLA), Sam Merriman (Idaho) and Jamir Miller (UCLA).

Hundley's coaching resume includes 18 years as a defensive coordinator: two at Clackamas Community College (1975-76), one at Idaho (1979), six at Oregon State (1984-89), five at Washington (1998-2003) and four at UTEP.

He began his coaching career in 1974 as a graduate assistant at Western Oregon State, his alma mater. In addition to his years as a defensive coordinator, Hundley coached the running backs at Idaho in 1978, marking the only time in his coaching career that he has spent time on the offensive side of the ball, and also spent two seasons at Nevada (1980-81).

In 1982, he began a long-running association with the Pac-10 Conference. He worked at Oregon State for eight years before enjoying six seasons (1990-95) at UCLA.

Following three years at Colorado (1996-98), he returned to the Pac-10 at Washington.

Hundley was inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame after an All-America playing career at Western Oregon State. He was a three-time all-conference selection in college. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Western Oregon State in 1974, and added a master's degree in education from Idaho in 1978.

An Oregon native, Hundley lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Forest Grove High School. He and his wife, Pam, have two sons, Jake and Nick. Jake will finish his doctorate in engineering from UCLA in the spring of 2009, while Nick was a catcher on the Arizona baseball team that reached the 2004 College World Series and is currently in the San Diego Padres organization.

DENNIS McKNIGHT

Offensive Live
First Season
Drake, '81

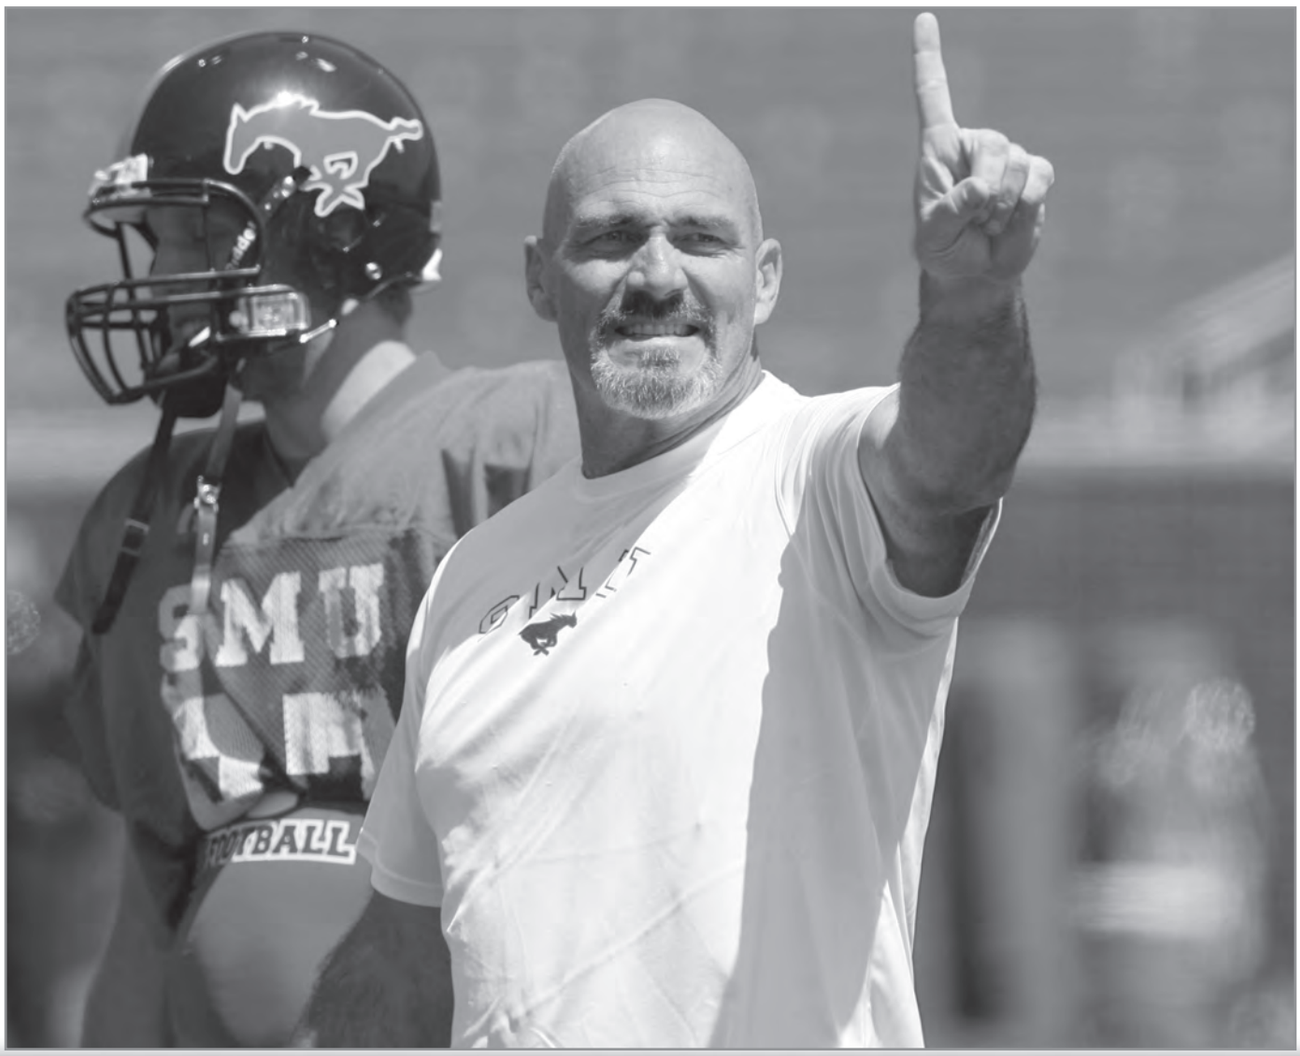
Offensive line coach Dennis McKnight arrives on the Hilltop after spending the last two seasons at Hawaii. McKnight served as an assistant coach in 2007 and worked as a graduate assistant in 2006.

It was his second stint with UH, having served as a full-time special teams coach and offensive line assistant during the 1999 and 2000 seasons under June Jones. He left UH after the 2000 season to return to San Diego, Calif., to tend to a business he owned. In 2001, he returned to the gridiron as an offensive line and special teams coach at St. Augustine High School. The next two seasons he served as the special teams coach at Grossmont College, and, in 2005, he was tight ends coach at San Diego State.

McKnight played 11 seasons in the National Football League (NFL), including eight with the San Diego Chargers, two with the Detroit Lions and one with the Philadelphia Eagles.

The 47-year-old was an alternate for the Pro Bowl in 1988, when he was a member of the San Diego Chargers.

Born in Dallas, Texas, McKnight moved to Staten Island, N.Y., where he graduated from Wagner High School in 1976. He went on to earn a bachelor's degree from Drake University in 1981.



DERRICK ODUM

Secondary
First Season
Utah, '93

Derrick Odum returns to the Lone Star state after spending three years at Utah, where he coached the Ute safeties.

In 2007, Odum tutored a defense that finished No. 1 in the nation in pass efficiency defense and fifth in the country in scoring defense. Among the standouts he helped develop were Joe Dale, the 2007 Poinsettia Bowl MVP, Steve Tate, a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection, and Robert Johnson, who was named the ESPN National Player of the Week after his performance against UCLA.

Odum also turned a pair of one-time walk-ons into all-conference-caliber players while at Utah. In 2005, Casey Evans led the league in interceptions and earned second-team All-MWC honors and Tate led Utah in tackles in both 2005 and 2006 en route to honorable mention (2005) and first-team (2006) All-MWC accolades.

Odum also played a role in the emergence of one of the greatest defensive players in Utah football history in 2005, when Eric Weddle manned a safety position for the first eight games of the season before moving to corner. Weddle, a 2006 consensus All-America and two-time MWC Defensive Player of the Year, became a second-round NFL draft pick of the San Diego Chargers.

Odum also assisted with the Ute kick returners and the punt team - the latter of which ranked No. 1 in the nation in net punting in 2006. His off-field duties included serving as the team's pro liaison.

Odum's first full-time coaching opportunity was with the defensive backs at Montana from 1998-99. Montana won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships and led the conference in pass efficiency defense. All of Odum's backfield starters earned All-Conference recognition in 1999, including safety Vince Huntsberger, who was selected as the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year.

From there, he went to Utah State (2000-02) where he spearheaded a 25-place improvement in pass defense. The Aggies placed second in the Big West Conference in interceptions his first year there.

Odum spent the summer of 2002 interning with the Tennessee Titans, working with their defensive backs and linebackers.

He left Utah State to coach the defensive backs at Houston, where he stayed from 2003-04. The secondary accounted for 13 of Houston's 14 total interceptions in 2003 and Odum produced a Conference USA All-Freshman team selection both years.

Odum returned to his alma mater in 2005, where he had served as a graduate assistant eight years earlier (1996-97). He assisted with the safeties in 1996, and assumed full responsibility for the safeties in his final year as a G.A.

Odum lettered at Utah from 1989-92, starting at free safety his freshman year and cornerback his junior season. He started for Utah in the 1992 Copper Bowl and also played center field for the Ute baseball team for two seasons.

He earned his bachelor's in political science from Utah in 1993.

He is married to the former Ania Homan and has two sons, Dominic and Jeremiah.

JEFF REINEBOLD

Wide Receivers
First Season
Indiana, '81

Wide receivers coach Jeff Reinebold comes to SMU after spending two seasons as defensive line coach at Hawaii, where he was part of UH's 2006 Hawaii Bowl and 2007 Sugar Bowl teams.

Reinebold has more than 25 years of coaching experience in the collegiate and professional ranks. Reinebold began his coaching career as a wide receivers coach at Western Montana in 1981 and then moved to Dartmouth, where he helped guide the Big Green to an Ivy League championship in 1982. He then helped Montana to the 1984 Mirage Bowl and Pennsylvania to two Ivy League championships (1986, 1988) before getting his first head coaching job at Rocky Mountain College in 1989, where his squad led NAIA District 12 in passing offense and had its first non-losing season in six years. The next season, he took a job at New Mexico as the outside linebackers coach before jumping to the professional ranks.

He is best known for his involvement with the Canadian Football League and NFL Europe. He began his pro coaching career in 1991 with the British Columbia Lions, where he helped develop an offense that led the CFL in 11 different categories. CFL Most Outstanding Player Doug Flutie passed for a record 6,691 yards and two receivers - Ray Alexander and Matt Clark - racked up more than 1,500 receiving yards each en route to earning CFL All-Star accolades. While with BC, Reinebold was part of a Lion organization that made the playoffs in 1991 and 1993. Reinebold then spent the 1994 season with the CFL's Las Vegas Posse before joining the staff of the Edmonton Eskimos. With Edmonton, Reinebold reached the 1995 CFL Western Final. After coaching the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe for one season, he returned to the CFL as head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1997 and 1998. After two seasons, he returned to NFL Europe as special teams coach and senior manager of international player development for the Amsterdam Admirals. Under Reinebold's guidance, the Admirals won the World Bowl XIII and ranked as the league's top special teams unit four times (1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002).

Reinebold has also shown a tremendous recruiting acumen and was named one of the nation's top 20 recruiters by Rivals.com; he was the only non-BCS coach to make the list. He has also shown a knack for developing talent, and two of Reinebold's protégés at Hawaii - Ikaika Alama-Francis and Melila Purcell - were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft. Alama-Francis was taken in the second round by the Detroit Lions, while Purcell was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the sixth round.

The South Bend, Ind., native prepped at South Bend Clay High School where he garnered All-Indiana honors at running back on his way to winning the city scoring title and finishing second in school history in yards gained in a season. He attended the University of Maine and earned three letters as a defensive back on the Black Bear football team before completing his degree from Indiana in 1981. He graduated cum laude with a B.S. in general studies.

An avid water sports fan and martial arts student, Reinebold is married to the former Ellie Taft and the couple has seven children: Sarah, Matthew, Zachariah, Emi, Megan, Jacob and Kekoa.

WES SUAN

Running Backs
First Season
Linfield, '71

Wes Suan comes to SMU after spending nine seasons as an assistant at Hawaii.

Suan spent his first six years with Jones' staff as a running backs coach before moving to the offensive line in 2005. He moved back to the running backs in 2006 and 2007. During his tenure, he developed a well-rounded group of runners and blockers who learned to recognize and identify various defensive schemes and blitzes. His work with the running backs was vital to the success of Jones' Run-and-Shoot offense.

In 2007, two Suan-coached running backs were selected in the NFL Draft: Reagan Mauia and Nate Ilaoa. Mauia went in the sixth round to the Miami Dolphins, while Ilaoa was selected in the seventh round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Suan began his coaching career at Leilehua High School as an assistant for the junior varsity squad in 1975. He moved on to serve as an assistant football and basketball coach and head track coach at Waialua High School in 1976, where he stayed for four years.

Suan took an assistant coaching job at Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore., in 1979, where he also served as assistant athletics director (1992-98). He stayed at Linfield for 19 years before returning to the islands.

Suan lives with his wife, Judy, and their two daughters, McKenzie and Madeline.

TAM HOLLINGSHEAD

Director of High School Relations
First Season
SMU, '76

Tam Hollingshead joins SMU's football staff as the Director of High School Relations, after a storied career as a high school coach. Hollingshead, an SMU alumnus and former football letterman, comes to SMU from Rockwall's Heath High School, where he spent the last three seasons as head football coach.

Hollingshead has a long history in the Texas prep ranks, serving as head coach at Temple High School and Permian High School in addition to Heath. He led Permian to the 1991 5A state championship and went 45-4-2 in his four seasons in Odessa. He then served as tight ends/specialists coach at Texas A&M for nine seasons (1994-2002), where he coached in six bowl games and helped the Aggies win the 1998 Big 12 championship.

A 1975 SMU letterman, Hollingshead came to the Hilltop after a storied prep career which included earning all-state accolades and winning two state championships at Brownwood High School. He later earned a Master's from Sul Ross State.

Hollingshead and his wife Barbara have three children – Amanda, Alek and Drew.

STEVE STIGALL

Director of On-Campus Recruiting
Second Season
Texas, '05

Steve Stigall is in his second year on the Hilltop serving as Director of On-Campus Recruiting. Prior to coming to SMU, Stigall served two years in the Texas football operations office.

On the Hilltop, Stigall handles all aspects of on-campus recruiting including the arrangement of lodging, meals, travel and visit itineraries. He also handles correspondence and monitors a recruiting management program for the SMU staff.

Stigall holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Texas, where he was a three-year letterwinner and the Longhorns' special teams MVP in 2004. He was also a four-time member of the Big 12 Honor Roll and a nominee for the 2004 Bobby Bowden Award.

A native of Emory, Texas, Stigall is married to the former Kathy Hahn, who was a four-year volleyball letterwinner for the Longhorns.

RANDY ROSS

Director of Football Operations
Second Season
St. Bernard, '75

Randy Ross is in his second year at SMU, where he serves as the Director of Football Operations. In that role, Ross wears a number of hats: he coordinates team travel, office management and administration, handles gameday responsibilities and serves as a liaison with athletics and university departments.

Ross came to SMU after spending 17 seasons at Alabama, the last four as Director of Football Operations. He was Alabama's recruiting coordinator from 1990-98 and then spent one season in UA's development office before moving back to the football office in 2000 as the Director of High School Relations. He began coaching career at Gaston (Ala.) High School before moving to Gadsden's Southside High School in 1976. He then served as Southside's head coach for nine seasons before moving on to coach at Scottsboro High from 1985-86. He moved to Vanderbilt to tutor the quarterbacks before being lured to Alabama by Gene Stallings.

A graduate of St. Bernard, Ross is married to the former Ann Lowe.

Graduate Assistant (Offense)
Third Season
Colorado, '06

Evan Burk is in his third season at SMU and begins his first season as offensive graduate assistant after spending the 2007 season as video graduate assistant and the 2006 campaign as the assistant to the Director of Football Operations. In his new role, Burk will help coach the running backs and prepare scouting reports and film breakdown, among other duties.

Burk came to the Hilltop after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Fairview High School in Boulder, Colo. At Fairview, Burk coached the junior varsity and freshman squads, serving as co-offensive coordinator for the 2005 JV team.

A 2006 graduate of Colorado, Burk attended high school at St. Mark's in Dallas. He has three siblings – Collin, Harlan and Alexandra.

TOLU LASAKI

Graduate Assistant (Defense)
Fourth Season
Colorado School of Mines, '02

Tolu Lasaki is in his fourth year on the Hilltop and his second as defensive graduate assistant. He spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons at SMU as the video G.A., after coaching cornerbacks at Colorado School of Mines in 2002 and 2003. At Mines, he coached two Division II All-West Region corners, and defensive backs set school records for single-game and season interceptions.

Lasaki was a four-year letterman at Mines, where he was named an all-conference pick and Team Defensive MVP. He finished his career with 15 interceptions.

He holds a degree in engineering from Mines and added an MBA from SMU in 2006.

DR. JOHN BAKER

Team Physician
12th Season

Dr. John Baker is entering his 12th year as the team physician for SMU after serving as an orthopedic consultant for the Mustangs since 1986, when he joined the staff at Carrell Clinic in Dallas. He also serves as the assistant team orthopedic surgeon for the Dallas Cowboys, assistant team physician for the Dallas Stars and coordinator of orthopedic resident training in sports medicine at Baylor University Medical Center.

Baker graduated from Purdue, where he was a four-year letterman as a scholarship swimmer. He was valedictorian of his class at the University of Missouri Medical School. Baker completed a general surgery internship at Parkland Hospital and a residency in orthopedic surgery at the University of Texas Health Science Center. He also earned a fellowship at the Hughstron Orthopedic Sports Medicine Complex in Columbus, Ga.

Baker and his wife, Susie, compete in equestrian jumping.

TERRY GARDNER

Administrative Assistant
Second Season

Terry Gardner begins her second year at SMU as the administrative assistant for the head football coach. She is responsible for maintaining June Jones' calendar and correspondence, as well as all other aspects of the day-to-day office operation.

Gardner came to SMU after a decade as an executive assistant at companies in the Dallas area. Prior to that, she worked for Halliburton as a training coordinator.

Gardner and her husband, James, have three children – Breanne Bishop, Allison Gardner and Brady Bishop. Gardner has deep ties to SMU as her husband, father-in-law and two of her children are SMU grads. She is also the aunt of current Mustang Ryan Moczygemba.

JOON HARTMAN

Administrative Assistant
First Season

Joon Hartman begins her first season at SMU as an administrative assistant in the Mustang football office where she handles a variety of responsibilities.

Hartman came to SMU after spending two-plus years as the senior office assistant in the Hawaii football office where she assisted with team travel and recruiting among other duties.

A native of Vashon Island, Wash., Hartman graduated from Hawaii in 2006 with a degree in sociology. She is the daughter of Peggy and Rick Hartman and has two older brothers – Bjorn and Neil.

JOHN MENDOW

Equipment Manager
Third Season

John Mendow is in his third season at SMU, having come to the Hilltop in the fall of 2006. He came to SMU after working three years as the Assistant Equipment Manager at Tulane and three years as the Equipment Manager at Nicholls State.

He handles all aspects of athletic equipment including purchasing, fitting and maintenance, as well as transportation of the equipment to road sites. Mendow is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and led a staff that was voted Conference USA Equipment Staff of the Year in 2005-06.

Mendow earned a B.A. in kinesiology and an M.S. in sport administration from LSU, where he served five years as a student manager and two years as a Graduate Assistant Manager.

MIKE MAPLES

Director of Video Services
Ninth Season

Mike Maples is in his ninth season at SMU, serving as the Director of Video Services. In his role, Maples handles all in-house digital recording and video equipment and coordinates the filming of all games and practices at SMU. He came to the Hilltop after serving as a video assistant for the Dallas Cowboys from 1996-2000.

Maples supervises a staff that includes assistant coordinator Tim Allmon, a graduate assistant and four student and part-time workers. He handles all video exchange between SMU and its opponents and breaks down all footage and provides cut-ups of every game for the SMU coaching staff. He was named Co-Conference Video Coordinator of the Year in 2002.

A member of the College Sports Video Association, Maples earned his bachelor's degree in radio, television and film from North Texas in 1998.

Maples and his wife, Sara, both natives of Coppell, live in Lewisville and are the parents of two daughters, Emma and Kate.

MIKE MORTON

Director of Sports Medicine
11th Season

Mike Morton is in his 11th season at SMU, having joined the Mustang staff in the fall of 1998. Morton is responsible for all football-related athletic training duties including prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic-related injuries. In addition to providing health care for the football team, he is responsible for managing a staff of seven full-time assistant athletic trainers. Morton, his staff and team of physicians are responsible for providing care for over 430 student-athletes, as well as dancers from SMU's Meadows School of the Arts.

Morton began his education as a student athletic trainer at Purdue University. He was awarded the Newell-Combs Scholarship for excellence in athletic training his senior year and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Athletic Training in May 1996. As part of his undergraduate study, Morton completed an internship with the Indianapolis Colts during the 1995 season.

Following his time at Purdue, Morton moved on to Auburn, where he earned a Master's of Education in higher education administration and sports administration. While completing his degree, Morton served as the graduate assistant athletic trainer for a Tiger baseball team that advanced to the 1997 College World Series and won the 1998 SEC Championship.

A native of Churubusco, Ind., Morton is single and resides in Dallas.

MIKE VAUGHT

Executive Assistant Athletic Director
3rd Season

Mike Vaught enters his third season as SMU's Executive Assistant Director of Athletics. In this position, Vaught serves as the program administrator for football while also facilitating the overall management of the Athletic Department.

Vaught came to SMU after spending six months as Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at Rice. Prior to his time with the Owls, Vaught spent three years as the Athletic Director of the Alamo Heights Independent School District in San Antonio and two years as the A.D. at the Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville, Tenn.

Prior to his move into athletic administration, Vaught was an assistant football coach at Navy (1995-2001), Texas State (1992-94) and Missouri State (1986-93), after spending two years as a graduate assistant at Arkansas (1984-85). He served as offensive coordinator at Navy and was the recruiting coordinator at all three schools at which he held full-time positions.

A native of Mena, Ark., Vaught earned his B.S. degree in health and physical education at Arkansas Tech.

Vaught and his wife, Karri, reside in Fairview.

C-USA & THE BCS

ABOUT THE BCS

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for post-season college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

The bowl games participating are the Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. In addition, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites.

BCS STANDINGS

The BCS Standings have been compiled by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame since the beginning of the 2000 regular season. The BCS Standings determine which teams play in the National Championship game, and which are included in the pool of eligible teams available for at-large selection. The BCS Standings include the Harris Poll, the USA Today Coaches poll and an average of six computer polls. Each component will count for one-third of a team's overall BCS score in the BCS Standings.

C-USA AND THE BCS

The Conference USA champion (along with the champions of the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference, the Sun Belt Conference and the Western Athletic Conference) will have an automatic berth in one of the five bowls if, and only if:

*It is a conference champion; and either:
*It is ranked in the top 12 of the BCS Standings on Bowl Selection Sunday;
*It is ranked in the top 16 of the BCS Standings on Bowl Selection Sunday, and its ranking in the BCS Standings is better than that of a champion of a conference that has an annual automatic berth in one of the BCS bowl games.

2007 GAME RECAPS

Sept. 3, 2007 - Gerald J. Ford Stadium - Dallas, Texas

Texas Tech	49
SMU	9

Texas Tech redshirt freshman Michael Crabtree had three touchdown catches to lead the Red Raiders past SMU, 49-9.

SMU, hoping to build off last year's 6-6 season, held in pretty well early. But after Crabtree's touchdown with two seconds left in the second quarter forced them to take a 21-3 deficit into halftime, they gained just 37 yards in the third quarter and seemed to lose their momentum.

SMU punted on its first three drives of the second half, while committing two turnovers. SMU broke the skid with a 37-yard field goal from Thomas Morstead, who shined with additional kicks of 35 and 36.

Sept. 8, 2007 - Gerald J. Ford Stadium - Dallas, Texas

North Texas	31
SMU	45

Justin Willis completed 30 of 42 passes for a career-high 353 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 82 more yards as SMU beat North Texas 45-31 on Sept. 8.

The Mustangs almost squandered a 14-point fourth quarter lead but Willis found Zack Sledge in the corner of the end zone for a 13-yard touchdown pass to give SMU a 38-31 lead with 4:19 left in the game. Then Bryce Hudman returned an interception 49 yards for a score with 3:39 left.

The Mean Green tied the game at 31 after Micah Mosley scored on a 3-yard run with 8:53 left in the game to cap a nine-play, 99-yard drive that consumed only 1:44.

SMU running back James Mapps gave SMU a 31-17 lead after he scored his second touchdown of the game on a 29-yard run on the final play of third quarter. Mapps also scored on a 5-yard draw in the first quarter. Mapps finished with 46 yards on 10 attempts.

The Mustangs scored 21 consecutive points and erased an 11-point deficit after Willis threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Emmanuel Sanders to give SMU a 24-14 lead with 13:22 left in the third quarter.

Devin Lowery led SMU with 160 yards on seven receptions. Willis' 435 yards in total offense (82 rush, 353 pass) ranks second in a game all-time at SMU.

Sept. 15, 2007 - Indian Stadium - Jonesboro, Arkansas

SMU	28
Arkansas State	45

Corey Leonard ran for three touchdowns and passed for two more to lead Arkansas State to a 45-28 victory over SMU. Leonard threw for a career-high 226 yards to lead the Indians to a victory in their delayed home opener. ASU was scheduled to play Memphis in its opener last week but the game was postponed until Sept. 27 after a three-hour delay for lightning and rain.

Leonard scored on runs of 6, 9 and 3 yards and threw touchdown passes of 6 yards to Chris Miller and 12 yards to David Johnson.

The Mustangs narrowed the margin to a touchdown again at 28-21 on a 10-yard pass from Justin Willis to Emmanuel Sanders, who caught eight passes for 110 yards, but Josh Arauco's 19-yard field goal with 10:10 left in the game put the Indians up 31-21 and they added a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to put the game away.

TCU	SMU	7
	TCU	21

TCU scored on a blocked punt and an interception return, then held on through a scoreless second half to beat SMU 21-7 on Saturday night.

Both teams squandered multiple scoring opportunities. TCU lost two fumbles inside the SMU 20-yard line, and the Mustangs were 0-for-3 on fourth down inside the TCU 25. The Horned Frogs had as many touchdowns as first downs - two - in the first 20 minutes of the game.

Colin Jones blocked Thomas Morstead's punt, and Bart Johnson picked it up and took it 17 yards into end zone for a 7-7 tie with 4:14 left in the first quarter. Robert Henson scored on a 43-yard interception return with 11:47 remaining in the first half.

Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson replaced starter Andy Dalton for a series in the first half and led TCU on a 16-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Derek Moore.

SMU quarterback Justin Willis was 19-of-31 for 203 yards, and the Mustangs held a 12-minute advantage in time of possession.

DeMyron Martin scored on a 15-yard run for SMU in the first quarter. he finished with 100 yards on 19 carries.

UTEP's Marcus Thomas rushed for 207 yards and scored on a 10-yard run in overtime to lead UTEP to a 48-45 overtime victory over SMU. UTEP trailed by 21 points in the first half and by 14 in the fourth quarter before rallying to force overtime.

The Miners tied the game with seven seconds remaining when Trevor Vittatoe capped a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Jake Sears to even things at 42.

Thomas Morstead kicked a 23-yard field goal before UTEP's Thomas scored his third touchdown of the game to hand the Mustangs their third straight loss.

SMU quarterback Justin Willis was 15-of-28 passing for 259 yards and two touchdowns. Willis threw a 38-yard TD pass to Zack Sledge with 14:45 left to put the Mustangs ahead 42-28.

The Mustangs seized early momentum when they scored twice in six seconds. Cedrick Dorsey had a 50-yard touchdown run with 3:01 remaining in the first half, then Wilton McCray intercepted a Vittatoe pass and returned it 23 yards for a touchdown to give SMU a 28-7 advantage.

James Mapps, who rushed for 149 yards, put SMU ahead on its next possession with a 1-yard scoring run.

SMU	7
Southern Miss	28

SMU racked up 353 yards on offense, including 286 yards from quarterback Justin Willis, but four turnovers proved costly in a 28-7 loss to Southern Miss Saturday night. After a scoreless first quarter, Southern Miss took control of the game with 21 straight points in the second period.

Golden Eagle quarterback Stephen Reaves, who was 18-of-26 for 206 yards, hit Shawn Nelson on a 28-yard scoring pass at the 8:24 mark of the quarter.

Chris Johnson added to the lead when he raced 19 yards on a reverse for a score.

Golden Eagles running back Damion Fletcher, who eclipsed the 2,000-yard mark for his career in the game, scored on a 3-yard plunge to make it 21-0 at halftime. Reaves added a 7-yard scoring run early in the fourth period for a 28-0 lead.

SMU avoided what would have been its first shutout in three years when a scrambling Justin Willis hit DeMyron Martin on a 16-yard scoring pass with 6:46 to play.

Tulane	41
SMU	34

Tulane's Matt Forte scored on a nine-yard run in overtime and finished with a C-USA record 342 yards on 38 attempts to lead Tulane to a 41-34 victory over SMU in overtime on Saturday night.

After Forte scored his fourth touchdown of the game, the Green Wave defense sealed the win when Reggie Scott forced a fumble by SMU quarterback Justin Willis on the Mustangs' first offensive play of overtime. Avery Williams recovered.

SMU forced OT when Willis threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Zach Sledge with eight seconds left in the game. Willis completed 28 of 36 passes for 354 yards and three touchdowns.

Forte gave Tulane a 34-27 lead when he scored on a five-yard run around the left side with 4:38 left.

SMU tied the game at 27 after Thomas Morstead hit a 37-yard field goal with 7:35 left to erase a 10-point fourth quarter deficit.

Forte's scoring runs included a career-long 77-yard run in the second quarter and a nine-yard run with 2:12 left in the third quarter which gave the Green Wave a 27-17 lead.

Willis threw first-half touchdown passes of 26 and 17 yards to wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders. Sanders scored on a 17-yard screen pass with 8:51 left in the second quarter for a 17-7 SMU lead. Sanders led all receivers with a career-high 155 yards on eight receptions.

SMU	23
Tulsa	29

Tulsa's Charles Clay caught a 51-yard touchdown pass from Paul Smith with 43 seconds left to lift Tulsa past SMU 29-23 on Saturday afternoon.

Trailing 23-21, Tulsa stopped SMU on fourth-and-goal at the Tulsa 1 with 1:56 left. With one time-out left, the Golden Hurricane went 99 yards in nine plays to score the winning touchdown.

Smith completed 27 of 45 passes for 336 yards and three touchdowns to lead Tulsa, which entered the game ranked third in total offense in the Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly NCAA Division I-A). It was the eighth consecutive game in which Smith passed for more than 300 yards.

Tulsa finished with 438 yards of offense but trailed most of the game because the Golden Hurricane committed five turnovers, compared to one for SMU.

SMU, ahead 20-14 early in the fourth quarter, failed on a fourth-and-two play from the Tulsa 32 when a deep pass fell incomplete. Tulsa took advantage, as Johnson caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Smith on the next possession to give the Golden Hurricane a 21-20 lead.

Thomas Morstead's 52-yard field goal with 10:42 left put the Mustangs back ahead at 23-21.

SMU opened up the scoring on an 18-yard second-quarter touchdown pass from Willis to Columbus Givens. Tulsa tied the game on its next possession on a 7-yard touchdown run up the middle by Smith.

Morstead kicked field goals of 50 and 32 yards, the latter on the final play of the first half, to give the Mustangs a 13-7 lead.

SMU went up 20-7 on their opening possession of the second half, as Emmanuel Sanders caught a 24-yard touchdown pass to put the Mustangs up 20-7. But Tulsa answered with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Cameron Clemons to narrow the margin to 20-14.

SMU	28
Houston	38

Houston running back Anthony Alridge ran for two touchdowns and threw for another as Houston defeated SMU 38-28 on Nov. 4.

SMU's loss came even as Justin Willis had his third 300-yard passing game of the season and moved past Chuck Hixson for the school's career lead in touchdown passes. He hit 19-of-32 for 351 yards and three touchdowns to give him 43 for his career, three more than Hixson who played from 1968-70.

Willis gave the Mustangs a 14-7 lead the first quarter with his first rushing touchdown of the year, a 4-yarder, and a 17-yard touchdown pass to Columbus Givens.

After a 31-yard field goal by T.J. Lawrence, Alridge ran for a 36-yard touchdown to give Houston a 17-14 lead with 8:57 left in the half.

He then threw for his first touchdown, hitting Chaz Rodriguez with a 24-yard TD pass with 3:29 to play in the second quarter. After a Willis fumble, Houston scored on a 14-yard pass from Keenum to Jeron Harvey to take a 31-14 lead 44 seconds before the half.

Willis threw touchdown passes of 51 and 21 yards to Zack Sledge in the third quarter to pull the Mustangs to within 31-28, but Keenum hit Donnie Avery for a 7-yard touchdown to push Houstons lead back to 10 with 12:08 remaining. Avery had 10 catches for 116 yards.

Rice	43
SMU	42

Rice kicker Clark Fangmeier hit a 31-yard field goal with no time left to give Rice a 43-42 win over SMU. Fangmeier's field goal capped a 10-play, 69-yard drive that consumed the final 2:29 of the game and helped the Owls overcome a 15-point fourth quarter deficit.

The Mustangs scored 28 straight points to take a 42-27 lead after a 1-yard run by Chris Butler with 2:06 left in the third quarter.

The Owls returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the first half to help build a 27-21 halftime lead. Brandon King scored on a 30-yard interception return and Andrew Sendejo scored on a 31-yard return with 4:53 left in the second quarter for a 27-14 Rice lead.

Zack Sledge caught touchdown passes of 21, 15 and 6 yards for the Mustangs. Sledge finished with five receptions for 68 yards. SMU's DeMyron Martin led all rushers with 137 yards on 16 carries.

UCF	49
SMU	20

Phil Bennett, in his sixth season with the Mustangs, coached his final home game on Nov. 17 as SMU fell, 49-20, to visiting UCF. Bennett's home finale got off to a rocky start as UCF's Khymest Williams returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown. Kevin Smith's 22-yard TD run gave UCF a 14-3 lead midway through the first and he added an 80-yard touchdown run just before halftime.

The Knights built their lead to 42-13 when Johnell Neal picked off a Willis pass and returned it 72 yards for a score. Phillip Smith, who had a 7-yard TD run in the first half, gave UCF a 49-13 cushion in the third with a 10-yard scoring run.

Nov. 24, 2007 - Liberty Bowl - Memphis, Tennessee — 3OT

SMU	52
Memphis	55

Matt Reagan connected on a 32-yard field goal in the third overtime as Memphis defeated SMU 55-52.

Memphis got its chance to win the game by stopping SMU on fourth-and-goal from the 2 on the first possession of the third overtime. Corey Mills knocked SMU quarterback Justin Willis out of bounds as Willis tried to sweep around the right side.

That set the stage for the winning kick by Reagan, who missed a 32-yarder at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. On that kick with 31 seconds left in regulation, holder Brett Toney bobbled the snap, helping send the kick wide.

Willis led the Mustangs, completing 35-of-48 passes for 375 yards and four touchdowns, three of them to Emmanuel Sanders. Willis also ran for 114 yards on 23 carries and had a 48-yard touchdown run in the third period.

LEVIAS BREAKS DOWN WALLS

Jerry LeVias has overcome many obstacles in his life to achieve his success. At the age of 12, LeVias suffered a stroke which left him unable to walk for five years, but he rebounded to become a barrier-breaker in college football.

The turbulent 1960s saw a huge change in the SMU football program when LeVias accepted the Mustangs' offer to become the first African-American football player to earn an athletic scholarship in the Southwest Conference.

LeVias earned All-America and All-SWC honors while on the Hilltop...

And was later honored for his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

LeVias, who chose SMU largely because of its accounting program, eventually was named All-America, Academic All-America and Southwest Conference Player of the Year in 1968 when he set the SMU record for receiving yards in a season (1,131).

A coach of a high school all-star team of which LeVias was a member said of the wide receiver, "He'll make a good coach out of someone." That coach's name was Doak Walker, the same man who would see many of his own collegiate records broken by LeVias.

The Houston native was inducted into the Hall in December 2003.

RETIRED JERSEYS

The 2000 football season saw SMU honor five former Mustang greats by retiring their jerseys. Pro Football Hall of Famers Lamar Hunt, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry, Doak Walker and Eric Dickerson were honored.

Hunt (No. 80) played wide receiver at SMU from 1952-55 and was the owner of the Kansas City Chiefs. Gregg (No. 73) was a two-way standout on the Hilltop from 1952-55 and went onto a 14-year NFL career in which he won two Super Bowl rings. Berry (No. 87) was a Mustang wide receiver in 1953 and 1954 who became one of the greatest pass catchers in NFL history. Walker (No. 37), the greatest player in SMU history, became the first junior to ever win the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Dickerson (No. 19) finished third in the 1982 Heisman Trophy balloting and is the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,450 yards.

In 2000, SMU honored five of its all-time greats by retiring their jerseys.

THE MUSTANG LEGEND

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win. After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Legend has it that Ford's signature car, the Mustang, got its nickname via the SMU football team following this 1963 game at Michigan.

FROM THE FIELD TO THE PRESS BOX

Swann led the Southwest Conference with 167 tackles during the 1995 season.

An all-conference player, Craig Swann often made huge contributions on the playing field. Now he contributes in a different way - over the airwaves.

Following an outstanding career and an SWC-best 167 tackles in 1995, Swann is now in his ninth season with the SMU program as the color analyst for the Mustang Radio Network.

Working alongside his partner, play-by-play man Rich Phillips, Swann paints a vivid picture for Mustang fans and the duo has been honored by a local radio station for its work.

Fans can catch SMU games this fall on the Mustang Radio Network.

THE 1915 MUSTANGS

On the morning of Sept. 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the SMU football program.

A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theological students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen.

The Mustangs played their first game Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points.

SMU-TCU AND THE IRON SKILLET

During the post-World War II college football boom, the SMU and TCU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the archrivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost.

In 1993, however, the tradition was revived as the president of the SMU student body painted the face of the TCU student body president red and blue following the Mustangs' 21-15 victory in Fort Worth. The engraved skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

After relinquishing the Skillet with 21-7 loss in Fort Worth in 2007, the Mustangs will try to regain the Skillet in September.

SMU-RICE AND THE MAYORS' CUP

A recent addition to the SMU-Rice rivalry is the Mayors' Cup, which goes to the winner of each year's football matchup.

The award came to being in 1998 when Dallas Mayor Ron Kirk and Houston Mayor Lee Brown were in office.

Rice won the inaugural Cup game in 1998, 23-17 in overtime, but SMU brought it home in 1999 with a 27-2 victory.

The Cup changed hands every season from 1998 to 2002.

Rice claimed the Cup in 2007, but SMU will look to regain it in the season opener.

RIVALRIES BORN & REBORN

SMU moved to Conference USA in 2005. With the move, SMU reunited with former Southwest Conference foe Houston while adding geographical rival Tulane.

The Mustangs kept alive their rivalries with Rice, Tulsa and UTEP, former WAC members who also made the jump to C-USA.

The 2008 slate also includes matchups with two old SWC rivals - Texas Tech and TCU.

THE HISTORY OF SMU FOOTBALL

1910s

On the morning of Sept. 14, 1915, coach Ray Morrison held his first practice, thus marking the birth of the SMU football program. Morrison came to the school in June of 1915 when he became the coach of the University's football, basketball, baseball and track teams, as well as an instructor of mathematics. A former All-Southern quarterback at Vanderbilt, Morrison immediately installed the passing game at SMU. A local sportswriter nicknamed the team "the Parsons" because the squad was composed primarily of theology students. SMU was a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which ruled that neither graduate nor transfer students were eligible to play. Therefore, the first SMU team consisted entirely of freshmen. The Mustangs played their first game Oct. 10, 1915, dropping a 43-0 decision to TCU in Fort Worth. SMU bounced back in its next game, its first at home, to defeat Hendrix College, 13-2. Morrison came to be known as "the father of the forward pass" because of his use of the passing game on first and second downs instead of as a last resort.

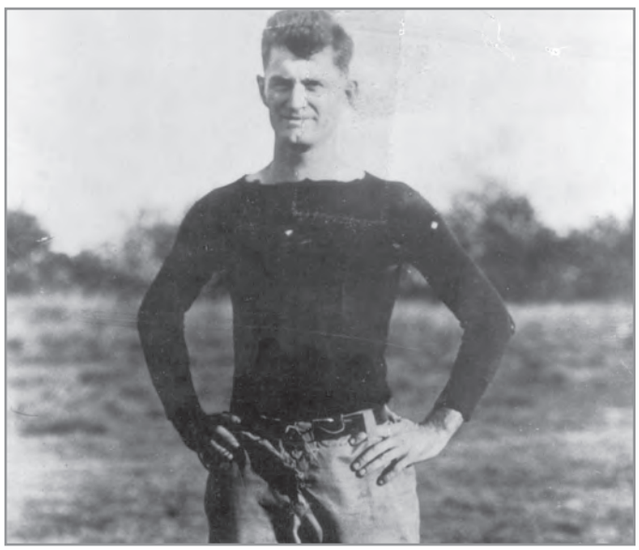
• During the 1915 season, the Mustangs posted a record of 2-5 and scored just three touchdowns while giving up 131 points. SMU recorded the first shutout in school history with a 7-0 victory over Dallas University that year.

• SMU finished the 1916 season 0-8-2 and suffered its worst loss ever, a 146-3 drubbing by Rice. The Mustangs were outscored, 455-27, by their opponents while managing ties against Austin College (0-0) and Southwestern (9-9). Ray Morrison left SMU following the 1916 season to work with the Army YMCA at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., as Director of Sports and Recreation. He returned to SMU in 1920 to organize a Department of Physical Education.

• J. Burton Rix became the second head football coach in 1917 and guided SMU to its first winning season (3-2-3).

• In 1918, SMU became a member of the Southwest Conference, joining Baylor, Rice, Texas, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Oklahoma A&M (which later became Oklahoma State).

Record for the decade: 14-21-6



Ray Morrison was SMU's first football coach and also coached the basketball, baseball & track teams on the Hilltop.

Ownby Stadium was built in 1926.

1920s

The 1920s brought the first two Southwest Conference football championships and a new stadium to the Hilltop. After Rix led the Ponies to a combined 4-11-3 record in the decade's first two years, Ray Morrison returned as coach in 1922 and guided SMU to the first of 10 consecutive winning seasons. Sportswriters billed the Mustangs the "Aerial Circus," in reference to Morrison's passing offense. At a time when most teams threw the ball five or six times per game, SMU passed between 30 and 40 times per contest. The Mustangs recorded a perfect 9-0 mark and won the school's first conference title one year later in 1923.

In 1926, Ownby Stadium was built, named after SMU alumnus and strong supporter of athletics Jordan C. Ownby. SMU defeated North Texas State Teachers College, 42-0, Sept. 24, 1926, in the first game at Ownby. Quarterback Gerald Mann, known as "The Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate passing, was a member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium and, as part of his scholarship chores, helped plant the grass on the stadium playing field. SMU steamrolled over its first three opponents that year, shutting out North Texas State, Trinity and Centenary by a combined score of 127-0. Missouri was the only roadblock for the Mustangs in their 8-0-1 season, managing a 7-7 tie.

• In 1922, end Gene Bedford and back Logan Stollenwerck were named first-team All-Southwest Conference, becoming the first Mustang players to achieve that honor. Bedford became the first player from SMU to play professionally when he played for the Rochester Jeffersons in 1925.

• The Mustangs made their first bowl appearance in 1924, playing against West Virginia Wesleyan in the Dixie Classic on New Year's Day. The game, played at Fair Park Stadium in Dallas, was the predecessor to the Cotton Bowl. WVW spoiled SMU's 18-game unbeaten streak with a 9-7 victory.

• In the spring of 1926, Morrison decided that it would be important to find a left-handed quarterback for the upcoming Southwest Conference season. Gerald Mann, who was the Mustangs' right-handed quarterback, told Morrison that he would have his left-handed quarterback before the season began. Not eager to lose his duty as signal-caller, Mann reported to fall practice ready to throw left-handed.

• Guard Choc Sanders became SMU's first All-America player in 1928. Sanders was also the Southwest Conference's first All-America selection. Tackle Marion Hammon became the Mustangs' second All-American one year later.

Record for the decade: 56-22-16

1930s

The Mustang football program continued its rapid ascent to national prominence during the 1930s. SMU won its first national championship in 1935 after posting a 12-win season under the guidance of first-year head coach Matty Bell. Known as a player's coach, Bell brought discipline to his team, and he spent time listening and talking to his players. Fullback Harry Shuford and tackle Truman "Big Dog" Spain were two prominent players on the national championship team. A tri-captain, Shuford was the Mustangs' best running back during the 1935 season, but injury forced him to miss the season's most critical contest.

The Mustangs, ranked No. 1 in the country, played second-ranked TCU and its star quarterback, Sammy Baugh, for the unofficial national championship and the right to play in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1936, against Stanford. Bobby Wilson scored two touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead before Baugh rallied the Horned Frogs to a 14-14 tie. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Finley connected on a long pass to Wilson after the Mustangs faced a fourth down at the TCU 39. Wilson caught the ball at the five and rolled into the end zone as the Mustangs held on to win, 20-14, and earned a trip to the Rose Bowl. Despite entering the game as heavy favorites, the Ponies were upset by Stanford, 7-0, with Cardinal quarterback Bill Paulman scoring the game's only touchdown on a first-quarter run. While the loss constituted the only blemish on a 12-1 season, SMU was able to pay off its 10-year debt on Ownby Stadium with the check the university received from competing in the Rose Bowl.

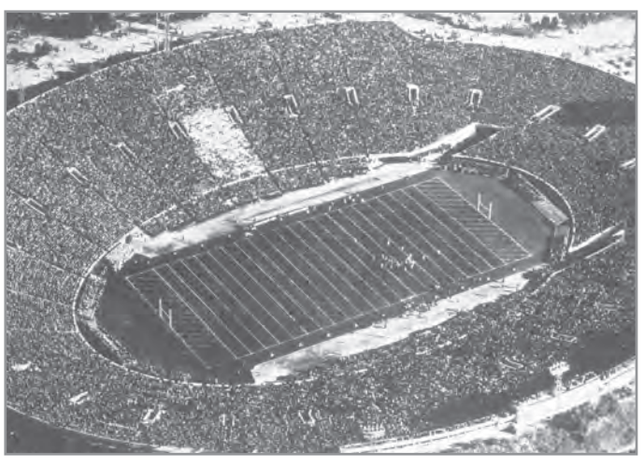
• Prior to becoming the head coach at SMU in 1935, Matty Bell served as the head coach at TCU (1923-1928) and Texas A&M (1929-33). Bell arrived at SMU in 1934 and served one season as the line coach.

• Three SMU players earned All-America status in 1935: tackle Truman Spain, guard J.C. Wetsel and back Bobby Wilson. Wilson, who scored all three Mustang touchdowns in the dramatic 20-14 win over TCU, went on to play one year of pro football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1936.

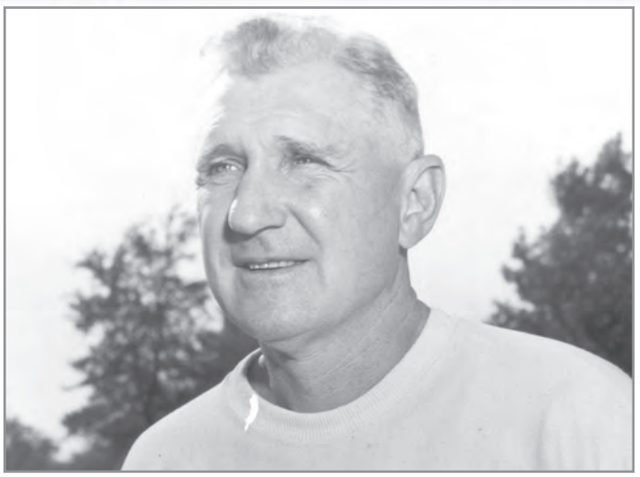
• SMU won its third Southwest Conference championship in 1931 after finishing the season with a 9-1-1 mark. The Mustangs struggled the next two seasons, posting a 3-7-2 record in 1932 and a 4-7-1 record in 1933.

• Harry Shuford, a tri-captain and fullback on the 1935 team, was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1936 and, despite the team's efforts to sign him to a contract, opted to attend law school at SMU. Shuford overcame the prevailing thought that a football player could not succeed in law school and finished first in his class in 1939.

Record for the decade: 64-38-9



SMU & Stanford fans packed the 1936 Rose Bowl.



Matty Bell led SMU to the 1935 National Title and later coached Doak Walker to the Heisman Trophy.

1940s

While the 1930s established SMU's position on the national football map, the 1940s ensured its permanent inclusion. A conference co-championship in 1940 served as a solid beginning to the new decade, but was followed by six consecutive losing seasons from 1941 through 1946. World War II resulted in the loss of Bell for three years (1942-45) when he left the Hilltop to join the Navy reserves. Bell returned to SMU in 1945 and took on an additional role as the university's athletic director. The 1947 season brought new hope and the emergence of a legend in Doak Walker. The only three-time All-America in SMU history, Walker led the Mustangs to consecutive Southwest Conference championships in 1947 and 1948. Over the course of his career at SMU, Walker rushed for 1,954 yards, passed for 1,638 yards, scored 288 points, punted for a 39.4 average and kicked field goals and extra points. He is also the Mustangs' all-time leader in punt return yards with 750. Walker's exploits earned him the Heisman Trophy in 1948 and led to his number, 37, being retired at SMU. Led by Walker, Kyle Rote, Dick McKissack and Paul Page, the Mustang backfield combined hard running with tricky reverse and gadget plays to wreak havoc on opposing defenses in the latter part of the decade.

• Walker was a high school teammate of Bobby Layne at Highland Park High School in Dallas. The two were matched against each other in Walker's first collegiate game in 1945 when Layne was the quarterback at Texas. Although UT won the game, 12-7, Walker scored the Mustangs' only touchdown and kicked the extra point. Walker and Layne were reunited as teammates when both played for the Detroit Lions in the early 1950s.

• After playing their home games since 1926 at Ownby Stadium, the Mustangs moved to the Cotton Bowl in 1948 and remained there for 31 years. For almost a half-century, the last game played at Ownby was Oct. 2, 1948, when SMU defeated Texas Tech, 41-6. Because of his immense popularity, the Cotton Bowl became known as "The House That Doak Built."

• Following the 1947 and 1948 seasons, SMU played in back-to-back Cotton Bowls. The Mustangs were matched against Penn State in the 1948 game, tying the Nittany Lions, 13-13. Walker threw a 53-yard touchdown pass and scored on a two-yard run, but Penn State's Elwood Petchel matched Walker by tossing scoring passes of 38 and six yards. The 1949 Cotton Bowl paired SMU with Oregon and its star quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin. The Mustangs won 21-13.

Record for the decade: 58-46-10

Kyle Rote (44) was named All-America following the 1950 season.

1950s

After playing alongside Doak Walker the previous two seasons, Kyle Rote was given his chance to be the featured back in 1950. Rote, who led the Southwest Conference with 777 yards rushing in 1949, was named an All-America following the 1950 season.

As the Walker-Rote era came to an end, so began a new era of Mustang gridiron greats including Fred Benners, Forrest Gregg, Raymond Berry and Don Meredith. One of the most prolific passers in Mustang history, Benners completed 109 passes in 108 minutes played in 1950. A two-time All-Southwest Conference selection, Forrest Gregg was a two-way player at both offensive and defensive tackle from 1952-55. At first, he was not offered a full scholarship by SMU upon graduation from Sulphur Springs High School, and was leaning toward attending Texas A&M. However, chief recruiter Herman "Sleepy" Morgan, recognizing Gregg's infinite potential, ultimately lured him to the Hilltop with an offer of a full scholarship. Despite the fact that Berry caught just 11 passes for 144 yards during his junior season and had never started a game in his career, his teammates elected him as a co-captain in 1954. With that vote of confidence, Berry went on to earn All-Southwest Conference and Academic All-America accolades. He was a 20th-round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973. Don Meredith was a two-time All-America in 1958 and 1959 and his .610 career completion percentage is the greatest of any passer in Mustang history. One of his greatest attributes was his running ability, which increased the pressure on opposing defenses.

• After Bell decided to relinquish his duties as head football coach to devote himself full-time to his responsibilities as athletic director, three different head coaches guided the Mustangs in the 1950s: H.N. "Rusty" Russell (1950-52), Chalmer Woodard (1953-56) and Bill Meek (1957-61). Bell's 127 career wins and .653 winning percentage both rank second all-time among SMU's coaching records.

• While Meek's teams won just 17 of 50 games during his tenure, he was responsible for installing an early version of the Run-and-Shoot offense during Don Meredith's sophomore season. Meek employed a spread formation, using a receiver wide to each side and one in the slot on each side.

• In his first varsity season in 1957, Meredith set an SWC single-season record by connecting on 71 of 102 passes for a .696 completion percentage. During his Mustang career, Meredith also returned kickoffs, punted and kicked.

• Quarterback Fred Benners led the Mustangs to perhaps their greatest win of the decade when he completed 22 of 42 passes for 336 yards to beat Notre Dame, 27-20, in South Bend Oct. 13, 1951.

Record for the decade: 47-48-5

1960s

The first two years of the decade found the Mustangs shackled with mounting losses and sagging attendance. In 1960, SMU finished 0-9-1 and average home attendance fell below 30,000 for the first time since 1946.

Following a 2-7-1 season in 1961, SMU introduced Hayden Fry as the Mustangs' eighth head coach. Fry lifted SMU back to national prominence in 1966, when SMU was ranked ninth in the nation and won its first conference championship in 18 years. Jerry LeVias became the first African-American player in the Southwest Conference to receive an athletic scholarship in 1965 after choosing SMU largely because of its accounting program. As a senior in 1968, LeVias caught 80 passes for a school-record 1,131 yards when he was selected both an All-America and Academic All-America. Combined with quarterback Chuck Hixson, LeVias helped lead the Mustangs to a 28-27 win over Oklahoma in the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, giving SMU its first bowl victory since the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Hixson was just a sophomore in 1968, but he finished the season as the nation's leading passer by completing 265 of 468 attempts for 3,103 yards.

October 11, 1963, provided the SMU football program with perhaps its most memorable game when the Mustangs hosted fourth-ranked Navy and its heralded quarterback, Roger Staubach at the Cotton Bowl. On its way to a 4-7 season, SMU was given little chance to beat the Midshipmen. Little-known sophomore John Roderick rushed for 146 yards on 11 carries and scored on touchdown runs of 45 and two yards for the Mustangs. The SMU defense, led by Bob Oyler, Martin Cude, Bill Harlan, Harold Magers and Doug January, sent Staubach to the bench twice with a dislocated left shoulder. Trailing, 28-26, with 2:52 remaining in the game, SMU had one last chance to pull of the upset. Quarterback Danny Thomas threw to Billy Gannon, who ran to the Navy 46. On the next play, Roderick took a pitchout 23 yards to the 23. After a pass interference penalty against Navy put the ball on the one-yard line, Gannon plowed over right tackle for the winning touchdown with 2:05 left. The SMU defense held off Staubach's valiant effort to rally his team for one last score, as the Mustangs pulled off the 32-28 upset.

• Jerry LeVias and John LaGrone were the only three-time All-SWC selections of the decade. LaGrone was also the first Mustang player to be selected as both an All-America and Academic All-America when he was honored following the 1966 season.

• Led by LeVias and Chuck Hixson, the 1968 Mustangs eclipsed the 300-point barrier for the first time in school history, scoring 311 points. In addition to his 1,131 receiving yards, LeVias set school records for receptions in a game (15 vs. Ohio State) and receiving yards in a game (213 vs. N.C. State).

Record for the decade: 35-65-3

John Roderick (23) scored twice in SMU's upset of fourth-ranked Navy in 1963.

1970s

Over the course of the 1970s, the SMU football program was shaped by outstanding individual performances and the birth of "Mustang Mania" on the Hilltop.

Chuck Hixson ended his SMU career in 1970 as the Mustangs' career leader in total offense with 7,179 yards. Alvin Maxson helped fill the void left by Hixson's absence by becoming the first Mustang to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons when he rushed for 1,012 in 1971 and 1,005 in 1972. In the process, he helped the Mustangs to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1958-59.

Defensively, Robert Popelka, Louie Kelcher and Putt Choate starred for the Mustangs in the 1970s. All three were two-time All-Southwest Conference performers during their careers at SMU.

Ron Meyer was hired as SMU's 10th head coach in January of 1976 and was given the responsibility of establishing a championship reign on the Hilltop. His ability to recruit players such as Mike Ford and Emanuel Tolbert helped build the foundation of "Mustang Mania." A highly-touted quarterback recruit from Mesquite High School, Ford was the nation's second-ranked passer in 1978, when he threw for 3,007 yards. His main target was Tolbert, an All-American with blazing speed.

Home attendance jumped from 26,000 to 52,000 in 1978 and "Mustang Mania" ushered a new era in SMU football the following season, when the Mustangs began playing all of their home games at Texas Stadium.

Accompanying the move to a new stadium in 1979 was a freshman class which would lift SMU football to new heights. Freshmen Eric Dickerson and Craig James combined to rush for 1,239 yards in 1979, and the "Pony Express" was born.

• Tailback Arthur Whittington finished second in the nation in all-purpose running to Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett in 1976 with 167.5 yards a game. Whittington finished his SMU career in 1977 as the Mustangs' all-time leader in kickoff return yards with 1,649.

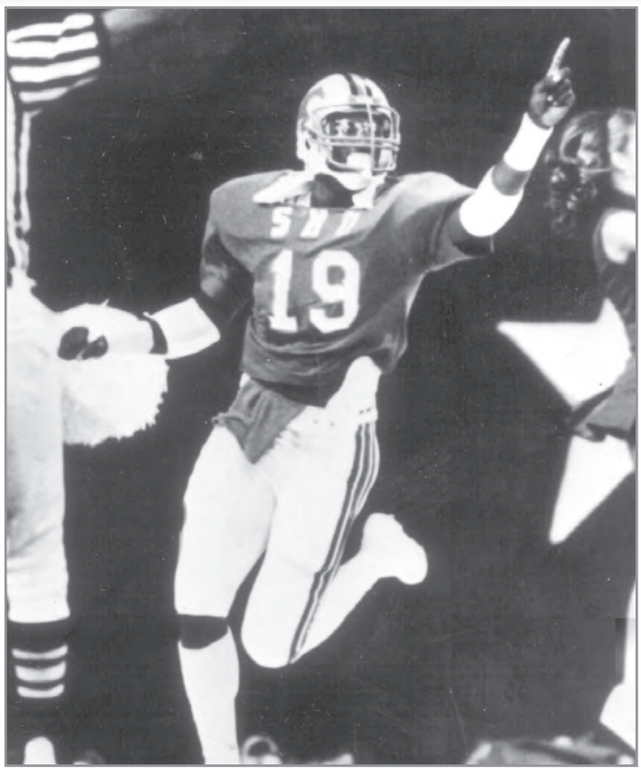
• A four-year starter from 1973-76, Ricky Wesson became the first Mustang quarterback to accumulate more yards rushing than passing in a single season in 1974. Wesson rushed for 885 yards while passing for 688. He became the fourth player in SMU history to lead the Mustangs in rushing and passing in the same season.

• Putt Choate became the first Mustang defender to record more than 200 tackles in a season when he made 253 in 1978. Choate finished his career with 649 stops.

• Despite coming from different backgrounds, Eric Dickerson and Craig James shared similar success before arriving at SMU. Both led their high schools to undefeated 15-0 seasons and state championships as seniors. In three years at Sealy High School, Dickerson rushed for 5,875 yards and 84 touchdowns. James collected 2,411 yards and 35 TDs during his senior season at Stratford High School in Houston.

Record for the decade: 48-59-3

Under Hayden Fry, Chuck Hixson set numerous records on the Hilltop.



Eric Dickerson (pictured) and Craig James teamed to form the "Pony Express" from 1979 to 1982.

1980s

There was a great deal of optimism surrounding the SMU football program in 1980. Eric Dickerson and Craig James gave the Mustangs one of the nation's top backfield duos and Mike Ford returned to the team after a knee injury limited him to just two starts in 1979. Leading the defense were future All-Americas John Simmons and Harvey Armstrong. The Mustangs parlayed their talent into an 8-4 record and the school's first national ranking (20th) since 1968. A 10-1 record the following season vaulted the Ponies to their second national championship and their first conference title in 16 years, as a new quarterback took over the reigns of the Pony Express. Lance McIlhenny was the perfect leader for SMU's option attack, using his running ability and leadership capabilities to guide the Mustangs to a 34-5-1 record after taking over as the starting quarterback in the seventh game of his freshman season in 1980. After Ron Meyer was named head coach of the New England Patriots prior to the 1982 season, Southern Mississippi coach Bobby Collins was named the Mustangs' new head coach. Dickerson, James and McIlhenny led SMU to an 11-0-1 record and its second-consecutive National Championship in 1982, highlighted by a victory over Pittsburgh and its star quarterback, Dan Marino, in the Cotton Bowl. With the loss of Dickerson and James to the National Football League in 1983, the Mustangs found a capable replacement in Reggie Dupard, a tailback from New Orleans whose blazing speed made him the first SMU running back to gain over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Dupard was the nation's eighth-leading rusher in 1985 with 1,278 yards, and he became a first-round draft choice by the New England Patriots the following spring.

After NCAA sanctions forced the cancellation of the 1987 season and university officials cancelled the 1988 campaign, SMU welcomed one of its former gridiron greats back to lead the resurrection of the Mustang football program. Forrest Gregg returned to accept what he called "the ultimate challenge" when he was named as the Ponies' head coach Jan. 14, 1988, after having coached the Green Bay Packers since 1984. He was given the responsibility of guiding a team consisting of 74 freshmen, 16 of whom were starters. One of those freshmen was quarterback Mike Romo who, on Feb. 10, 1988, became the Mustangs' first signee since 1985. Romo engineered one of the most exciting wins in Mustang history when he led SMU from a 17-point deficit in the final five minutes to defeat Connecticut, 31-30, in just the second game of the 1989 season. He completed a four-yard pass to Michael Bowen on the game's final play to give the Ponies their first win since 1986 in a game that came to be known as the "Miracle on Mockingbird."

• One of the most memorable plays in SMU football history took place Nov. 13, 1982, when Bobby Leach took a cross-field lateral on a kickoff with 17 seconds left and raced untouched for a 91-yard touchdown to give the Mustangs a 34-27 win over Texas Tech. The play helped preserve the Ponies' undefeated season and forever branded Leach with the nickname of "Miracle Man."

• As a freshman in 1989, Mike Romo broke four school passing records which had stood for over 20 years. Romo set SMU records for yards passing in a game (450), passes completed in a game (40), passes completed in a season (282) and passes attempted in a season (503).

• Jason Wolf set an NCAA freshman record when he caught 61 passes in 1989.

• After playing their home games in Ownby Stadium from 1926-48, the Mustangs returned their home games to the on-campus facility in 1989. SMU hosted Rice in the season opener on Sept. 2, marking the return of Mustang football to Ownby exactly 40 years and 11 months after SMU's last game there.

Record for the decade: 63-28-1

1990s

Forrest Gregg assumed the role of athletic director April 11, 1990, while announcing that he would relinquish his coaching duties following the 1990 season. Tom Rossley, who served as offensive coordinator at SMU from 1988-89, became the 13th head coach in Mustang history in December 1991. The orchestrator of the Mustangs' Run-and-Shoot offense, Rossley returned to the Hilltop after one season as the quarterbacks coach of the Atlanta Falcons. The Mustangs went 5-6 in 1992 and Rossley was named Southwest Conference Co-Coach of the Year.

Another significant accomplishment occurred that season when Jason Wolf ended his career with 235 receptions, making him the Southwest Conference's career leader in that category.

Mick Rossley then emerged as the Mustangs' top receiving threat. A sure-handed receiver, Rossley broke Jerry LeVias' school record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 83 passes in 1994.

The winds of change swept across the Hilltop following the 1994 season as SMU prepared to begin its 77th and final season of play in the Southwest Conference after announcing that it would accept an invitation to join the Western Athletic Conference beginning in 1996. Coinciding with the final SWC season was the return of SMU football to the Cotton Bowl. After playing most of its home games the previous six seasons at Ownby Stadium, SMU made "The House That Doak Built" its home stadium in 1995. The Mustangs made their return a memorable one when, in the 1995 season opener against eventual SEC Western Division champion Arkansas, Wilbert Mitchell recovered a Razorback fumble on the SMU two-yard line in the game's final minute to preserve a 17-14 win.

The Mustangs showed they could compete in the Western Athletic Conference by fashioning a 4-4 record in their new league. SMU posted a 30-0 victory at UTEP in 1996, marking the Ponies' first shutout win since 1984. The Mustangs also won at Arkansas, exploded for 52 points against New Mexico and upended crosstown rival TCU, 27-24, before a national television (ESPN) audience in the 1996 season finale at the Cotton Bowl.

Mike Cavan was named the 14th head coach of the Mustangs Dec. 20, 1996. Cavan led SMU to a 6-5 overall record in 1997, marking the first winning season for the Mustangs since 1986. After a 1-4 start, SMU won five consecutive games, marking its longest winning streak in 12 years. Cavan was named the WAC Coach of the Year by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for his efforts in 1997.

Among SMU's victims in 1998 was Metroplex rival and bowl-bound TCU on "Doak Walker Day" at the Cotton Bowl. The game was played in memory of the Mustangs' greatest player, who passed away Sept. 27, 1998, at the age of 71. SMU dedicated its season to Walker, who won the 1948 Heisman Trophy.

• John Stewart became the first SMU All-America selection since Reggie Dupard in 1985 when the Mustang kicker was honored following the 1993 season. A former walk-on who never had attempted a field goal or extra point prior to his senior season in 1993, Stewart converted on all 23 of his extra point attempts, as well as 13 of his 17 field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder.

• Quarterback Ramon Flanigan became SMU's all-time leader in total offense (7,437 yards) and touchdowns responsible for (57) with a solid senior season in 1997. He was granted a sixth year of eligibility prior to 1997 by the NCAA.

• Linebacker Chris Bordano was named the 1997 WAC Mountain Division Defensive Player of the Year after leading the team in tackles with 120. Bordano became just the 10th player in SMU history to be named all-conference three times.

• In 1999, SMU great Eric Dickerson was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, becoming the fifth Mustang to be enshrined.

• Defensive end Luke Johnson recorded 11.5 sacks in 1999 while helping lead SMU to a 4-6 record, and concluded his career as the program's all-time sack leader with 23.5 sacks from 1996-99.

• In 1999, the Ponies closed another chapter of Mustang football at the Cotton Bowl and prepared to move into their new on campus home, Gerald J. Ford Stadium, in 2000.

Record for the century: 416-403-56

2000s

Sept. 2, 2000, may stand out as the most significant day in the history of the storied SMU football program. That was the date that Mustang football returned to campus with the inaugural game in $56-million Gerald J. Ford Stadium. SMU christened the facility by whipping Big 12 foe Kansas, 31-17, before a sellout crowd of 32,267. It was the first capacity home crowd for Mustang football since 1990.

Former Kansas State defensive coordinator Phil Bennett was named the 15th head coach in school history Dec. 5, 2001. Bennett's first season on the Hilltop saw one of the greatest statistical rushing seasons ever produced at SMU, as junior back Keylon Kincade rushed 327 times for 1,279 yards with eight 100-yard rushing games. Kincade's attempts number was a school season record while his yardage total and number of 100-yard games ranked third on the SMU season lists.

Justin Willis was named the Conference USA Freshman of the Year in 2006.

The 2002 campaign was also the last for two of the best players in recent SMU history: tight end John Hampton and linebacker Vic Viloria. Hampton concluded his career as the program's all-time leader in receptions at his position with 114. Viloria was SMU's leading tackler during his final three seasons and finished his career ranked eighth on the school's all-time tackles list with 372. He earned All-WAC honors three times.

The 2005 season brought a new highlight to SMU football history as the Mustangs stampeded into Conference USA. SMU finished the 2005 season with a 5-6 mark, its highest win total in eight seasons. The year was full of highlights like SMU's first win over a ranked team since 1986, a 3-1 record against Bowl teams, and a three-game win streak to end the season - SMU's longest since 1999.

The 2006 season showcased a bright future for SMU football. The Mustangs increased their win total for the third straight season, posted their highest win total in a decade and reached bowl-eligibility. SMU student-athletes filled a Conference USA-high six spots on the All-Freshman team and SMU also placed the record-setting pair of quarterback Justin Willis and wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders on The Sporting News' Freshman All-America squad. SMU continued to win off the field as well, as the Mustangs received the American Football Coaches Association's 2006 Academic Achievement Award after the school recorded a 100 percent graduation rate.

After a disappointing 1-11 season in 2007, Bennett was dismissed as head coach. Former National Coach of the Year June Jones was then lured away from Hawaii to coach the Mustangs, creating a sense of excitement not seen on the Hilltop in decades.

MUSTANGS TOP HORNED FROGS EN ROUTE TO 1935 NATIONAL TITLE

Fort Worth - The SMU Mustangs improved to 11-0 with a 20-14 win over second-ranked TCU before more than 40,000 fans on Saturday, Nov. 30, 1935. The win snapped TCU's 10-game win streak and ended the Frogs' bid for the Rose Bowl. SMU moved one step closer to the Pasedena-based contest, a Southwest Conference title and a National Championship.

SMU opened the scoring midway through the first quarter when Bob Finley plunged in from one yard out. Mustang kicker Maurice Orr added the extra point and SMU held the early 7-0 lead. SMU stretched the lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter when Bobby Wilson scampered in from 14 yards out for the score. Orr's PAT gave the Ponies the two-TD edge just over one quarter into the game.

After two TCU scores knotted the game at 14-14 with eight minutes to play, the stage was set for SMU's dramatic win. Wilson returned the kickoff to the SMU 40-yard line and after two carries the Mustangs had the ball at midfield. Following a three-yard carry by Shelly Burt, Finley heaved a 47-yard scoring pass to a leaping Wilson amid a group of Horned Frog defenders. Orr missed the point-after, but the game ended when TCU's drive stalled at the SMU 35 and the Ponies had held on for the win.

ABOUT THE DICKINSON & HOULGATE SYSTEMS

The Dickinson System (1926-40) is a mathematical point system devised by Frank Dickinson, a professor of economics at Illinois. The annual Dickinson ratings were emblematic of the national championship and the basis for awarding the Rissman National Trophy and the Knute K. Rockne Intercollegiate Memorial Trophy.

The Houlgate System (1927-58) is a mathematical rating system developed by Deke Houlgate of Los Angeles, Calif. His ratings were syndicated in newspapers and published in Illustrated Football and the Football Thesaurus.

BIG GAME BREAKDOWN

MUSTANGS RALLY WITH 20-POINT FOURTH QUARTER TO CLINCH SWC CROWN AT ARKANSAS

Fayetteville - SMU finished the regular season 10-1 and clinched the 1981 Southwest Conference championship with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Arkansas in the final game of the season on Nov. 21.

With the Pony Express held in check for most of the game, the Mustangs managed only one touchdown - a Russ Washington 10-yard interception return - to go along with two Eddie Garcia field goals through three quarters of play.

Trailing 18-12 entering the fourth quarter, SMU tied the game at 18 with 7:41 remaining on another Garcia field goal. On the ensuing Razorback possession, SMU's Eric Ferguson jumped in front of a Brad Taylor pass and returned it inside the Arkansas 20. The Ponies only needed two Craig James runs to score the go-ahead touchdown with 6:30 remaining.

Following the kickoff, the Mustang defense held again and forced an Arkansas punt with 3:49 remaining and SMU wanting a score to seal the victory. Eric Dickerson delivered with 27 seconds left, when he scampered 31 yards for the touchdown to give SMU the 32-18 win.

Dickerson and James each ran for more than 100 yards in the contest and Dickerson set an SMU record with his 19th touchdown on the season.

BIG GAME BREAKDOWN

MCILHENNY MANEUVERS MUSTANGS TO 7-3 COTTON BOWL WIN OVER MARINO'S PANTHERS

Dallas - With the temperature in the upper 30s and a light rain falling at game time, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU 1-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the 2-yard line. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter.

Following the ensuing kickoff, Pitt quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU seven. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season and giving SMU its third national title.

ABOUT THE HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

The Helms Athletic Foundation (1941-82) was established by the founding sponsor, Paul H. Helms, Los Angeles sportsman and philanthropist. After Helms' death in 1957, United Savings & Loan became its benefactor during 1970-72. A merger of United Savings and Citizen Savings was completed in 1973, and the Athletic Foundation became known as Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation. In 1982, First Interstate Bank assumed sponsorship for its final rankings. Thereafter, Schroeder, who died in 1988, then chose, with the assistance of a Hall Board, the annual national champion after the bowl games.

BOWL GAMES

1936 ROSE BOWL
STANFORD 7, SMU 0

Pasadena, Calif.
January 1, 1936

SMU entered the 1936 Rose Bowl as the nation's top-ranked team, sporting a perfect 12-0 record and a defense which had shut out eight of its 12 opponents during the regular season. Led by first-year head coach Matty Bell, the Mustangs were matched against a strong Stanford team which took a 7-1 record into the game.

Due to a traffic jam, the SMU team bus did not arrive at the Rose Bowl until 20 minutes prior to kickoff. Stanford quarterback Bill Paulman scored on a one-yard sneak in the first quarter to give the Indians the early lead. It proved to be the only score of the game as SMU lost its best scoring opportunity with a fumble on the Stanford 5-yard line. The loss was SMU's only blemish in its first national championship season.

1948 COTTON BOWL
SMU 13, PENN STATE 13

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1948

The 1948 Cotton Bowl featured a matchup between two unbeaten teams in SMU and Penn State. Led by All-America Doak Walker, the Mustangs jumped ahead early. Walker tossed a 53-yard scoring pass to Paul Page and later scored on a two-yard touchdown carry.

The Nittany Lions struck back when, just before halftime, Elwood Petchel connected on a 38-yard touchdown pass to Larry Cooney which cut the SMU lead to 13-7. Penn State scored the only points of the second half when Petchel threw his second scoring pass of the game on a six-yard toss to Wallace Triplett in the third quarter. The Nittany Lions, however, missed the extra point, and the game ended in a 13-13 tie.

1949 COTTON BOWL
SMU 21, OREGON 13

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1949

Two of the nation's most powerful offensive teams met in the 1949 Cotton Bowl. Doak Walker and Kyle Rote led the Mustangs to their second consecutive Southwest Conference championship in 1948 while Oregon rode the right arm of quarterback Norm Van Brocklin to the Pacific Coast Conference co-championship.

The difference in the game was the use of the quick kick by SMU. Walker booted one 79 yards and Rote launched an 84-yard kick to pin the Ducks deep in their own territory. In addition to their quick kicks, the Mustangs' star running backs each scored touchdowns to give SMU a 14-0 lead. Answering the call for the Ducks, Van Brocklin threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Dick Wilkins early in the fourth quarter. SMU put the game away just three minutes later when Chicken Roberts scored on an eight-yard run to push the lead to 21-6.

1963 SUN BOWL
OREGON 21, SMU 14

El Paso, Texas
December 31, 1963

In a rematch of the 1949 Cotton Bowl, SMU entered the game with a 4-6 record and had received a Sun Bowl berth largely on the basis of its 32-28 victory over fourth-ranked Navy in the third game of the season. SMU had a talented QB duo in Danny Thomas and Mac White, and both were counted upon to rally the Ponies in the fourth quarter after falling behind 21-0.

Thomas led the Mustangs on a drive which culminated in a two-yard touchdown pass to John Roderick. Later in the quarter, Roderick was on the receiving end of a seven-yard scoring pass from White to pull the Mustangs within nine points. After White ran for the two-point conversion, SMU trailed by a touchdown, 21-14, but could not pull any closer.

1966 COTTON BOWL
GEORGIA 24, SMU 9

Dallas, Texas
December 31, 1966

After winning its first Southwest Conference crown in 18 seasons, SMU earned a trip to the Cotton Bowl to face Georgia. Kent Lawrence set the tone early for the Bulldogs when he raced 74 yards for a touchdown on the game's second play. The sophomore running back finished the day with 149 yards rushing on 16 carries, as the Mustangs were unable to contain the Georgia ground attack. SMU cut the lead to 7-3 midway through the first quarter on Dennis Partee's 22-yard field goal.

Georgia responded by scoring 10 unanswered points before Mike Richardson scored the lone SMU touchdown on a one-yard dive with 1:14 left in the first half. Leading 17-9 at halftime, Georgia shut down the SMU offense and its outstanding sophomore receiver Jerry LeVias in the second half. The only score in the final two quarters came when Bulldog fullback Ronnie Jenkins, who rushed for 88 yards on 23 carries in the game, scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 14:33 left in the game.

1968 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
SMU 28, OKLAHOMA 27

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1968

The 53,543 fans who gathered in the Astrodome on New Year's Eve night for the 1968 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl comprised what at the time was the largest crowd ever to see a football game played indoors. They also witnessed one of the most exciting college bowl games ever as SMU and Oklahoma combined to score 35 points in the fourth quarter before the game was decided.

OU scored on its first possession of the game when Bob Warmack carried on a sweep to the right for an eight-yard touchdown. Warmack's touchdown stood as the game's only score until the third quarter when Mike Richardson scored for SMU on a one-yard dive. The Sooners retaliated by driving 80 yards and scoring on a 21-yard pass from Steve Owens to Johnny Barr.

The fireworks began in the fourth quarter when SMU's Chuck Hixson connected with Jerry LeVias for an 11-yard scoring pass to tie the game at 14-14. Richardson scored his second touchdown with 7:35 left in the contest to give the Mustangs a 21-14 lead. After OU answered with a touchdown to tie the game, SMU linebacker Bruce Portillo intercepted a Sooner pass on the OU 22. Hixson put SMU on top, 28-21, after a 19-yard pass to Ken Fleming with just three minutes remaining. After driving the length of the field, Oklahoma cut the Mustang lead to 28-27 when Barr caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Mickey Ripley with 1:16 left. SMU held on to the lead when Ripley was stopped short of the goal line on the Sooners' two-point conversion attempt.

1980 HOLIDAY BOWL
BYU 46, SMU 45

San Diego, Calif.
December 19, 1980

The 1980 Holiday Bowl featured two teams with distinctly different offensive philosophies. SMU relied upon the running of Eric Dickerson and Craig James, while BYU boasted an explosive aerial attack led by Jim McMahon.

The Mustangs jumped out of the gate early, racing to a 19-0 lead in the first quarter after touchdown runs by Dickerson and James, a safety and a 42-yard field goal by Eddie Garcia. SMU had increased its lead to 29-7 in the second quarter before BYU's Vai Sikahema returned a punt 83 yards, pulling the Cougars within 16 at halftime. Entering the fourth quarter, SMU led 38-19, and with four minutes remaining the Mustangs held a 45-25 advantage.

With his team trailing by 20, McMahon led BYU to two quick touchdowns to cut the SMU lead to 45-39. With 18 seconds remaining, BYU's Bill Schoepflin blocked Eric Kaifes' punt to give BYU possession at the Mustang 41-yard line. After two desperation passes by McMahon fell incomplete, the Cougars had one final opportunity with just three seconds left. As time expired, McMahon found tight end Clay Brown in the end zone for a 41-yard touchdown pass, guiding BYU to one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history.

1983 COTTON BOWL
SMU 7, PITTSBURGH 3

Dallas, Texas
January 1, 1983

With the temperature in the upper 30s and a light rain falling at gametime, playing conditions were anything but ideal when undefeated SMU met Pittsburgh in the 1983 Cotton Bowl. Accustomed to playing in inclement weather, Pittsburgh appeared to have the advantage in the early going, driving to the SMU 1-yard line on the game's opening series. Panther halfback Joe McCall fumbled away Pitt's best touchdown opportunity when Mustang safety Wes Hopkins fell on the loose ball at the 2-yard line. SMU was not able to capitalize and after two quarters neither team had scored, marking the first scoreless first half in the Cotton Bowl in 22 years.

On their first possession of the second quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points when Eric Schubert booted a 43-yard field goal. SMU responded with an 80-yard drive which resulted in Lance McIlhenny's nine-yard touchdown scamper around right end on the third play of the fourth quarter. Following the ensuing kickoff, senior quarterback Dan Marino engineered a drive which put the Panthers in scoring position at the SMU 7-yard line. On third-and-goal, Marino threw a pass which was tipped by Hopkins and intercepted in the end zone by Blane Smith, thus ending Pittsburgh's chance of handing SMU its only loss of the season.

1983 SUN BOWL
ALABAMA 28, SMU 7

El Paso, Texas
December 24, 1983

SMU squared off against Alabama in the 50th Sun Bowl on a cold and windy afternoon in El Paso. The temperature at kickoff was 28 degrees, with winds gusting up to 35 miles per hour. Alabama jumped on the Mustangs in the first quarter, scoring on touchdown runs of one and 11 yards by Ricky Moore. The Crimson Tide defense forced three SMU turnovers in the first half, and Alabama was able to stretch its lead to 28-0 by halftime.

Jeff Atkins helped the Mustangs get on the scoreboard early in the third quarter when he broke loose for a 58-yard run, setting up Lance McIlhenny's 15-yard touchdown pass to Marquis Pleasant. Pleasant's touchdown represented the only points of the second half as Alabama held on for a 28-7 victory. After giving up 303 total yards in the first half, the SMU defense limited the Crimson Tide to just 96 yards of offense in the second half.

1984 ALOHA BOWL
SMU 27, NOTRE DAME 20

Honolulu, Hawaii
December 28, 1984

Between 1949 and 1958, SMU and Notre Dame battled each other on the gridiron eight times. When the two schools met in the 1984 Aloha Bowl, it represented their first meeting in 26 years. SMU, playing in its fourth bowl game in five seasons, scored on its first two offensive possessions. A seven-yard touchdown carry by Jeff Atkins and Don King's 12-yard pass to Cobby Morrison gave the Mustangs a 14-0 lead. Notre Dame responded with 10 unanswered points before Brandy Brownlee connected on a 47-yard field goal to give SMU a 17-10 lead at halftime.

The Fighting Irish tied the game on Mark Brooks' 11-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, but SMU regained the lead on its next possession with Brownlee's second field goal of the game. The Mustangs were able to work on the clock for most of the second half due to the strong running of Atkins and Reggie Dupard, each of whom ran for more than 100 yards in the contest. Dupard's two-yard scoring run gave SMU a 10-point lead with six minutes left in the game and the Mustangs held off a late Notre Dame rally to win, 27-20.

SMU RETIRED JERSEYS

Eric Dickerson
19

As one of the greatest running backs in college football history, Eric Dickerson had his No. 19 SMU jersey retired Nov. 24, 2000.

Dickerson earned All-America honors as a senior in 1982 when he rushed for 1,617 yards and 17 touchdowns on 232 carries (7.0 yards per carry), helping the Mustangs to an 11-0-1 record and a No. 2 finish in the final Associated Press national rankings. He finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year behind Herschel Walker and John Elway as SMU captured the Southwest Conference championship and defeated Pitt, 7-3, in the Cotton Bowl.

A two-time Southwest Conference Player-of-the-Year, the Sealy, Texas, native owns 14 school rushing records, including career yards (4,450), season yards (1,617 in 1982), career touchdowns (47), season touchdowns (19 in 1981) and 100-yard games (28).

Doak Walker
37

Doak Walker epitomized leadership, sportsmanship, and academic and athletic achievement during his storied career at SMU in the late 1940s. Gracing the covers of numerous national magazines, "The Doaker" was a national phenomenon. The versatile Walker, who also punted, returned punts and kickoffs, and kicked extra points, earned All-America honors in 1947, 1948 and 1949. After starting as a freshman in 1945, he missed the 1946 season due to his service in the Army; however, by his junior season, his exploits on the field had become legendary, and in 1948, Walker became the first junior to win the Heisman Trophy.

In addition to winning the Heisman, Walker was a consensus All-America three times and also won the Swede Nelson National Sportsmanship Award while at SMU.

Forrest Gregg
73

A Southern Methodist University leader as a student and an alumnus, Forrest Gregg saw his No. 73 jersey retired Oct. 7, 2000. Gregg was a two-way player on the Mustang football team from 1952-55.

Gregg was a dominant force on both sides of the line as a collegian and earned All-SWC honors as a junior and senior in 1954 and 1955. He also served as SMU co-captain in his final year.

After his career on the Hilltop concluded, Gregg moved on to a 14-year career in the National Football League. He played for the Green Bay Packers for 13 years and closed his NFL career in 1971 with the Dallas Cowboys. While with the Packers, Gregg won a pair of Super Bowl Rings in 1967 and 1968. He long held a Green Bay record by playing in 187 consecutive games, was chosen All-Pro eight straight years from 1960-67, played in nine Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977.

When football returned to the Hilltop in 1989, it was natural that Gregg would play a part. He served as head coach of the 1989 and 1990 and served as SMU's athletic director (1990-94). He received the Distinguished Alumni Award in the fall of 2000. The award represents the highest honor the university and its Alumni Association can bestow upon an alumnus of the institution.

Lamar Hunt
80

A great friend of Southern Methodist University and one of its most distinguished alumni, Lamar Hunt had his No. 80 football jersey retired Sept. 23, 2000. Hunt was a member of the Mustang football team from 1952-55 and wore No. 80 as a wide receiver his senior season.

After graduating from SMU with a degree in geology, Hunt had a distinguished career as a sports entrepreneur. He remains perhaps best known for helping turn professional football into America's No. 1 sporting pastime and was credited with accidentally naming the NFL's championship game the "Super Bowl." He was an original organizer of the American Football League (AFL), for which the Texas Sportswriters Association named him "Southwesterner of the Year."

In 1960, Hunt founded the Dallas Texans, who later became the Kansas City Chiefs, and was a principal negotiator in the AFL/NFL merger that paved the way for much of the game's modern growth.

For all his efforts, Hunt was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. As a tribute to his contributions to professional football, the AFC Championship Trophy carries his name, and in 1993, the NFL gave Hunt its Lifetime Achievement Award.

Raymond Berry
87

One of the greatest wide receivers in National Football League history, Raymond Berry had his No. 87 SMU jersey retired Oct. 28, 2000. Berry was a two-way player who earned two letters for the Mustangs in 1953 and 1954.

The Corpus Christi, Texas, native earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was an Academic All-American during his senior year. He was a 20th-ound NFL Draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1955 and became one of the greatest draft selections in league history.

Berry led the NFL in receptions in 1958, '59 and '60. He helped the Colts win the 1958 league championship by catching 12 passes for 178 yards and a touchdown in the title game.

When he retired from the game after the 1967 season, Berry was the NFL's all-time leader with 631 catches for 9,275 yards and 68 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

SMU FOOTBALL GREATS

Lance McIlhenny posted a career mark of 34-5-1 at the SMU helm.

GERALD MANN

First-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1926 and 1927. Led SMU to a 15-2-1 record in his final two seasons. Nicknamed the "Little Red Arrow" because of his strong, accurate throwing arm. Member of the first Mustang team to play in Ownby Stadium in 1926. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1969. Eventually went into law and served as the Attorney General for the state of Texas.

LANCE MCILHENNY

SMU and the SWC's all-time winningest quarterback with a combined record of 34-5-1. Guided SMU to its first 11-win season and a national championship. Three-time All-SWC selection from 1981-83. Led the SWC in passing efficiency with a 133.0 rating in 1982.

Eric Dickerson will always hold the SWC record with 47 TDs.

Following in the footsteps of Eric Dickerson and Craig James, Reggie Dupard exploded on to the national scene in 1983 and earned All-America honors in 1985.

REGGIE DUPARD

All-America selection in 1985. The only running back in school history to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Career 5.9-yard average per carry is the best in school history. SMU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,772 yards. First-round draft choice of the New England Patriots in 1986.

Owns the school record for longest field goal, a 57-yarder. Ranks second in career field goal accuracy with a percentage of .714. The eighth-leading scorer in school history with 170 points.

EDDIE GARCIA

An All-SWC placekicker in 1980. Owns the all-time school record with 262 points kicking and 44 field goals. Set the school mark with 91 kicking points in 1981. Played two seasons with the Green Bay Packers in 1983 and 1984.

JERRY NORTON

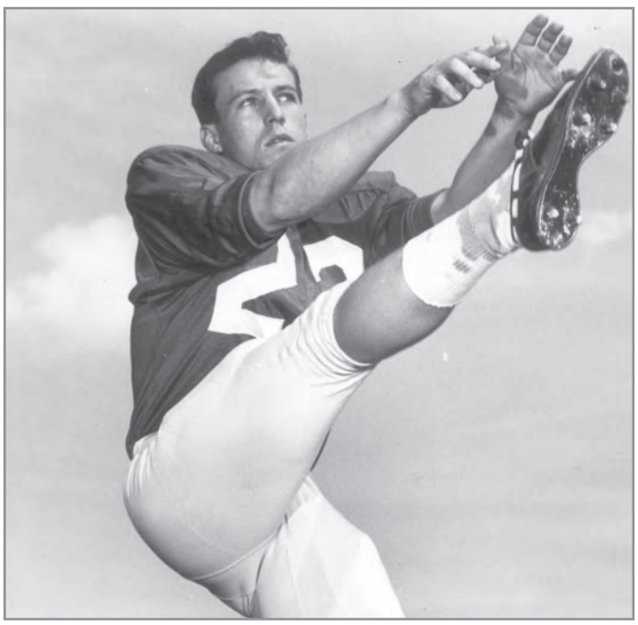
First-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1952. Led the Southwest Conference and ranked fourth in the country in punting average in 1951 and 1952. Career average of 41.8 ranks sixth among SMU career leaders in that category. Also led the Mustangs in rushing and passing as a junior in 1952. Played for five professional teams from 1954-64.

JOHN STEWART

A former walk-on who earned All-America and All-SWC honors in 1993. Kicked the second-longest field goal in school history (55 yards, 1993).

DANNY THOMAS

Led the Southwest Conference and ranked among the nation's top 10 punters for three consecutive seasons from 1962-64. Led the country with a 44.0 yard average in 1963. His 42.1 yard career punting average ranks fifth among SMU's all-time leaders. Also served as SMU's quarterback and led the team in passing in 1963 and 1964, when he had 17 touchdown passes and just four interceptions.



Danny Thomas led the SWC and ranked among the nation's top 10 punters for three consecutive seasons from 1962-64.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming has been part of the SMU tradition since 1926, the first year the Mustangs played at Ownby Stadium. Since then, SMU has played its annual Homecoming game in three other venues, the Cotton Bowl (36 times), Texas Stadium (eight times) and Gerald J. Ford Stadium since 2000. The 2008 SMU Homecoming contest will be held Nov. 8 and will pit the Mustangs against Memphis.

Several entertainment and athletic celebrities have served as SMU Homecoming Grand Marshall, including actress Morgan Fairchild in 1981, model Cheryl Tiegs in 1982, pro football and tennis entrepreneur Lamar Hunt in 1983, 1948 Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker in 1990, Pro Football Hall of Famer Forrest Gregg in 1991, professional golf great Payne Stewart in 1998 and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Raymond Berry in 2000.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

R. GERALD TURNER

President

As the president of Southern Methodist University since 1995, R. Gerald Turner is leading an era of unprecedented progress at the University. The Campaign for SMU: A Time to Lead raised more than $542 million for academic programs, scholarships, professorships, and student life programs. A new strategic plan is guiding the University's advancement, and the Centennial Master Plan is the physical profile of the campus, including development of a new East Quad.

Beyond the campus, Gerald Turner serves on the boards of the United Way of Dallas, the Methodist Hospital Foundation, the Salvation Army of Dallas, and three publicly traded companies.

President Turner holds leadership positions in several higher education associations. He is co-chair of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and chair of the NCAA Subcommittee on Presidential Leadership of Internal and External Constituencies. He is the winner of the Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award of the Anti-Defamation League of Dallas and the Chief Executive Leadership Award from District Four of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

Before joining SMU, President Turner was the chancellor of the University of Mississippi. A native of New Boston, Texas, he earned a B.S. degree in psychology from Abilene Christian University and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin. He and his wife, Gail, a native of Graham, Texas, have two daughters, both of whom live with their husbands in Dallas. Angela is a professional opera singer and the mother of Luke; Jessica, an SMU alumna, is a professional actress.

PAUL ROGERS

Faculty Athletic Representative

Paul Rogers, professor of law and the former dean of the SMU School of Paul Rogers, professor of law and the former dean of the SMU School of Law, is the university's faculty athletic representative and represents the university with Conference USA and the NCAA. Rogers formerly served as president of the Southwest Conference and was more recently on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet. He was recently appointed to the National Advisory Committee for the National Football Foundation's Honor Society and also is a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Faculty Athletics Representative Association.

In 1988, Rogers was the principal drafter of the University's Manual of Governance for SMU Athletics and became the first chair of the SMU Athletic Council, which establishes academic and administrative policies for student-athletes at SMU. He continues to serve as a member of the council.

Prior to joining the SMU law faculty in 1980, he served on the law faculty at Loyola University of Chicago. He previously practiced law in Pennsylvania. Dean Rogers has earned two degrees (B.A., J.D.) from the University of Texas and an LL.M. from Columbia University.

Rogers served as dean of the School of Law from 1988-97. Earlier he served as associate dean for academic affairs at the Law School from 1982-86. He has co-authored a leading casebook on antitrust law, now in its fourth edition, and has written numerous articles on antitrust, regulated industries, contracts, commercial law and legal history. An avid baseball historian, he has published three books and a number of articles dealing with the history of baseball.

He is a member of the board of directors of Dispute Mediation Services and the Committee for a Qualified Judiciary and is a former Trustee of the Dallas Bar Foundation. Dean Rogers is a fellow of the Dallas Bar, Texas Bar, and the American Bar Foundations. He also served as chair of the Ethics Oversight Committee for Dallas 2012 and is president of the Hall-Ruggles Chapter (Dallas-Fort Worth) of the Society of American Baseball Research.

Rogers has three daughters, Heather, Jillian, and Ruthie, and two grandsons, Baer Heck and Jonathan Van Auken, and a granddaughter, Bozlie Kate Heck.

SMU ADMINISTRATION

Arriving on the Hilltop with over 25 years of experience in athletic administration, Steve Orsini began his tenure as the Director of Athletics at SMU on June 1, 2006. A little over two years into his tenure, Orsini has created a tremendous sense of excitement for SMU fans.

Orsini made an immediate impact by hiring 2001 Associated Press National Coach of the Year Matt Doherty to lead the Mustang men's basketball program even before his first "official" day on the job. In January 2008, Orsini brought a new spark to the SMU football program, hiring former National Coach of the Year June Jones to lead the Mustangs. With the hiring, SMU became one of just six schools nationally to have National Coaches of the Year at the helms of its football and men's basketball programs.

Mustang teams won three conference championships in 2007-08, and in addition to their successes on the field, SMU student-athletes also succeeded in the classroom. SMU continues to boast a remarkable 97 percent refined graduation rate and 176 student-athletes were named to the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.

SMU is also seeing a construction boom under Orsini. SMU has embarked on a $60 million plan to build new facilities and improve existing ones. The $13-million, 43,000 square-foot Crum Basketball Center, a basketball-only practice facility adjacent to Moody Coliseum, opened in February 2008 and the new Turpin Tennis Stadium opened in April 2008. A golf complex and continued renovations to Moody Coliseum, which began last season with the installation of a new $900,000 videoboard and redesigned court, are in the works.

"I am here because SMU has a very successful program and is committed to providing all of the ingredients to build upon that success into greater success," said Orsini. "We can be successful on a national level. My philosophy on how to have fun in athletics is spelled W-I-N. Our goal in every sport is to be in the top 25 in the nation - and for the ones that already are, I want them to be in the top 10. Collegiate athletics can excite the whole community, build school spirit and really create a sense of community."

Orsini came to SMU from the University of Central Florida, where he served as A.D. since June 2002. At UCF, he helped transform UCF into a top athletic program. He guided the Knights to Conference USA membership and established the UCF Athletics Association, Inc., a private, non-profit, direct-support organization of the University of Central Florida.

As part of a 70 percent increase in the department's budget during his tenure, Orsini increased funding for all sports while at UCF and the Knights achieved immediate success under his leadership. During the 2004-05 academic year, six UCF teams advanced to NCAA play, including the men's basketball squad, which made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Competing in their last season in the Atlantic Sun Conference, the Knights swept the league's all-sports awards, given to the top program in the conference, for the third straight year. UCF followed that up by advancing to the inaugural Conference USA Football Championship Game and its first-ever bowl appearance in the fall of 2005 after winning the C-USA Eastern Division crown. In all, 25 teams competed in post-season play during his time at UCF, and the Knights posted their highest-ever NACDA Cup finishes in 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Orsini's tenure at UCF was marked by growth. He oversaw major facility additions and renovations at UCF, including the completion of the Wayne Densch Sports Center and the Nicholson Fieldhouse, two of the top athletic facilities in the nation. He also initiated plans and secured financing for a new on-campus football stadium, a softball stadium complex, a rowing boathouse and a convocation center and arena as part of a $270 million mixed-use development - all of which opened in 2007.

Orsini expanded the Golden Knight fan base, with UCF setting all-time records in football season ticket sales and in revenues generated through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships and fundraising. He also saw UCF set attendance records for football and men's and women's basketball contests.

Prior to his appointment at UCF, Orsini spent three years as senior associate director of athletics for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. In that capacity he was responsible for administration and business affairs for the Yellow Jackets. He played a pivotal role in the expansion of the football and baseball stadiums and also served as the tournament manager for the 2002 NCAA Final Four in the Georgia Dome.

Orsini, 51, joined the Georgia Tech staff after five years as the Associate Athletics Director and Treasurer at the U.S. Naval Academy Athletic Association. Previously, he spent 10 years in administration with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

A native of Hummelstown, Pa., Orsini graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1978 with a degree in Business Administration, majoring in accounting. He was a three-time letter winner at fullback on the Fighting Irish football team and was one of four team captains on the 1977 national championship squad.

After graduation, he spent three years as Senior Assistant Accountant and became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the New York office of the national accounting firm Deloitte, Haskins and Sells.

He began his career in athletics administration in 1981 as Assistant Business Manager and Ticket Manager at Notre Dame and remained in that capacity for three years until leaving to join the Dallas Cowboys as ticket manager in 1984. He became Director of Administration for the Cowboys in 1989, serving in that capacity until 1993 when he went back into private business as the Sales Controller for Fujitsu-ICL Systems, Inc. in Dallas. He resumed his career in athletics administration at the Naval Academy in 1994.

During his time at Navy, Orsini was responsible for all business and legal affairs and helped increase the Athletic Association's revenue by 70 percent. Responsible for the development of the department of External Affairs while at Navy, the program set all-time records at the school for season ticket sales, marketing and sponsorship revenues and fan attendance during his tenure.

Orsini is married to the former Amy Kertesz of South Bend, Ind., and the couple has a daughter, Angela.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials should be received by the SMU Athletic Public Relations office no later than Wednesday of game week.

Requests should be made in writing on company letterhead by the sports editor or director and sent to:

Football Credentials
SMU Athletics Public Relations
Box 750315
Dallas, TX 75275-0315
-or-
FAX: 214-768-2044

After Monday preceding the game, credentials will not be mailed.

The media will call window at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located at the northwest corner of the stadium at the ticket office in the Paul B. Loyd, Jr. All-Sports Center. Credentials may also be picked up at the SMU Athletics Public Relations Office in the Loyd Center the day before the game.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of parking passes are available to media members. Media parking is located in various lots on campus. Admittance to the parking areas is by parking pass only. Admittance will not be granted with a press box or photo credential. A map on the back of the parking pass will direct you to the lot. Parking passes must be requested at least one week prior to the game for mailing purposes or they may be picked up at the Athletics Public Relations Office prior to game day.

MAIN PRESS BOX

The main press box at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located on Level 5. Admittance is strictly limited to members of the working press. Two elevators to the press box are located on the west side of the stadium just inside of Gate 2.

Priority seating will be determined according to the following criteria: local daily newspapers covering SMU on a regular basis; daily newspapers designated by the visiting SID; local radio and TV stations; national publications. All others are accomodated on a space-available basis.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Team and individual statistics, play-by-play and quotes for both teams are provided.

The SMU press box is a wireless Internet hot spot. To access the network, open your Internet browser and enter your e-mail address in the appropriate field on the SMU homepage. You do not need an SMU address for the network. Any e-mail address will activate the service.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The locker rooms are located in the Loyd All-Sports Center at the north end of Ford Stadium. After a brief cooling down period, SMU head coach June Jones and requested Mustang players will be available in the interview room located in the SMU football meeting room. The SMU locker room is closed to the media.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field photographers must wear their Field/Photo credentials at all times for access to the playing field. Photo credentials are limited to representatives from daily newspapers, wire services, television stations, magazines, and those persons on assignment for the SMU or opposing team's media relations offices. NCAA rules limit photographers to restraining lines clearly marked on the sidelines. Photographers uncertain of sideline restrictions should seek clarification prior to the start of the game from a member of the SMU Athletics Public Relations staff.

Anyone holding a field credential who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the field.

The photo deck at Gerald J. Ford Stadium is located on the roof of the press box. Take the press box elevator at Gate 2 to Level 5, proceed to the stairs at the south end of the press box and take them to the roof. There are covered areas from which to shoot in case of inclement weather. Photographers shooting from the photo deck must have Photo Deck credentials.

TELEPHONES

To order a phone line in the press box, contact:
Lynn Gross, SMU IT Services
214-768-2121
lgross@smu.edu

All media must provide their own instruments. Requests for individual phone lines must be made by noon on Wednesday of game week. SMU will provide five courtesy phone lines on Level 5 (press box) on a first-come, first-served basis for general use by the media.

RADIO

Booths are provided for home and visiting radio networks on Level 5. Visiting radio stations should coordinate all logistics through SMU Assistant Athletic Director Brad Sutton. SMU provides ISDN and POTS lines for visiting broadcasters on a reciprocal basis. There is also a dry-pair drop into the visiting locker room.

TELEVISION

SMU's live television appearances are governed by existing Conference USA and NCAA policies. All telecasts must be approved by SMU Director of Athletics Steve Orsini. Spotters and statisticians are available for a fee, but the SMU Athletics Public Relations office must be notified at least 10 days in advance.

PRACTICES

Members of the media are welcome to attend practice, but please notify the Athletics Public Relations office in advance. The Mustangs practice both on the Pettus Practice Fields just west of Gerald J. Ford Stadium and inside the stadium. Check the practice time and site on a daily basis.

Television photographers may shoot warm-ups and individual drills but are not be allowed to shoot group formations.

All interviews should be coordinated through the Athletics Public Relations office.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS

SMU hosts weekly media luncheons featuring Mustang head coach June Jones and select SMU players each Tuesday throughout the season. The lunches, which begin at 12 p.m. Central time, are held in the Hall of Champions on the third floor of the Loyd All-Sports Center. Contact Brad Sutton at 214-768-2883 for more information.

OFFICIAL APPAREL PARTNER OF SMU ATHLETICS

The SMU Department of Athletics, in conjunction with its shoe and apparel partner, adidas, will unveil new football uniforms in 2008. The new uniforms, which include exclusive color schemes and numerals, are the result of months of consultation with adidas, the football coaching staff, and the Department of Athletics.

Beginning this fall, all SMU athletic teams will be outfitted exclusively in adidas footwear, uniforms, training apparel, and accessories. SMU is part of a select group of universities that have similar agreements with adidas, including Notre Dame, UCLA, Tennessee, Indiana, Nebraska, Michigan, and Wisconsin among others. adidas also has marketing agreements with the NFL, MLS and an 11-year exclusive all-league partnership with the NBA.
